A WAR MEMORIAL.

There must be among the majority of the members of the Gloucester and Bristol Association a sense of regret at the announcement, emanating last week from the Swindon Branch, that the Association's proposed form of memorial to fallen ringers of the diocese will not meet with any great support from that district. The scheme is much on the lines of memorials in other societies, viz., the augmentation of one of the principal rings of bells and the provision of a memorial tablet, and it is unfortunate, in view of the impression that might be created, that the report of the meeting, at which the Swindon Branch arrived at their decision, did not state the ground for the anticipated lack of support. Whatever may be the reason for the attitude taken up, the fact that an important branch is likely to withhold its assistance in a project where unity of purpose and effort is required, is one which gives the Association's executive cause for real regret.

When the scheme was launched it was thought that the proposal would have the wholehearted support of every member, and while it is impossible to meet objections which remain unstated, there are many reasons which can be advanced why all should help in such a project, even if the particular form of it was not the one which everybody would have preferred. If there is more than one scheme submitted, everyone cannot have that which is his individual choice, but, a selection having been made, the majority, in a matter of this kind, have, we think, a right to look for the help of the minority. Here is a proposal which is not a scheme for a benefit of this or that part of the diocese, or this or that section of the association, but a movement to perpetuate the memory of comrades from the belfry who have proffered and given all for the sake of those who are left, and of generations yet to come. Division of opinion upon the form of the memorial there may well be when the scheme is under consideration, but, when finally a decision has been arrived at, division of support robs the project of much of its sentimental value as well as jeopardising its chances of success.

It is difficult to believe that the Swindon Branch of the Association desires to do either of these things. The provision of additional bells, with a suitable permanent record, at some leading church or cathedral, is an eminently suitable form for a ringers' memorial to take, and is being adopted by many associations. We hope that it is only a misapprehension which leads the Swindon Branch to adopt the attitude reported last week, and that other counsels will prevail. In the meantime, the North Forest Branch has expressed a very warm determination to help, and, perhaps after further explanations, the Swindon Branch will enter as cordially into the scheme.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

LEWISHAM DISTRICT ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Lowisham district was held at Crayford on Saturday, October 25th. Members, attended in good numbers, and the bells were kept going to various methods. Nearly 50 Nearly 50 ringers were present at the service, at which the Association Form was used. A good muster of the choir helped to brighten the service considerably.

The curate read the prayers, Mr. E. Barnett, junr., the lesson, and a very nice address was delivered by the Rev. Canon Gustavus Jones (Rector), who took for his text 4th Zecharinh, 20-21 verses.

The members then adjourned to the Rodney (Y.M.C.A.) Hut for 51 sitting down, including the Rector.

The business meeting followed, the Rector presiding.—Five new members were elected. Chislehuist, Woolwich and Greenwich, were members were elected. Unstellurst, woodwich and organization proposed as the place of the next quarterly meeting, the last named being selected by a good majority, for Saturday 31st January, 1920. The District Secretary then read his annual report, and, no questions of the control of the recognity.

tions arising, it was adopted and ordered to be recorded in the minutes.

Mr. F W. Richardson then proposed that Mr. T. Groombridge, senr., be asked to reconsider his decision, and to again accept the post of hon, district secretary, as he thought that the necessary help could be obtained for him to carry on the duties.—This was seconded by Mr. J. W. Thornton in a very complimentary way. -Groombridge stated his reasons for wishing to retire, but if the help could be obtained he was willing to carry ou.—He was then re-elected unanimously.

Mr. W. J. Jeffries was re-elected to represent the district on the Central Committee.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Rector for the use of the bells, his address, and presiding, and to the organist and choir for their services.—The Rector said it had been a great pleasure to welcome them to Crayford, and he would convey their thanks to those concerned. The rest of the evening was spent with touches on the tower bells and handbells.

TONBRIDGE DISTRICT.

The autumn meeting of this district was held at Shiphourne, by invitation of the Vicar (the Rev. F. L. Schreiber) on Saturday, Nov. 1st, and in spite of the wet weather was attended by 26 members from East Pockham. Penshurst, Seal Chart, Horsmonden, Tonbridge, Tunbridge Wells, and the local company. The usual special service, arranged and conducted by the Vicar, was held. Miss Saunders presided at the organ, and the service was very hearty throughout.-The Vicar, in his address, extended a cordial welcome to the members, remarking that it was just nine years ago that the district held its last meeting at Shipbourne. The reverend gentle-man also made a feeling reference to the members who had gone forth to fight in the great war, of whom nearly 60 (including Mr. E. May, captain of the Shipbourne band) had given their lives.

After service, the members were entertained to tea in the club room of the New Inn by the Rev. and Miss Schreiber.

The business meeting followed, the Vicar presiding. Several members having expressed a desire to hold the annual district meeting at Tunbridge Wells in January instead of Eduardian. Tunbridge Wells in January instead of Edenbridge, as was arranged at the last annual meeting, so as to provide an opportunity of trying the new peal of bells there, the district secretary was asked to write to Edanbridge and several other bands who were not represented that day, asking if they had any objection to the change.

Vules of thanks were accorded to the Vicar and Miss Schreiber and to Miss Saunders, for arranging and assisting at the service, for entertaining the members, and for the use of the bells, to which the Vicar

The members adjourned to the tower, and ringing by mixed bands in various methods on the handy ring of six bells was indulged in.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

THE COUNTY'S LIGHTEST RING.

A most successful meeting of the Bedford District was held at Clapham on Saturday, Nov. 8th. Members were present from Bedford Willington, Elstow, Biddenham, Roxton, and the local company. Tea was served in the Reading Room, and the Vicar, who presided, welcomed the ringers to Clapham, and hoped it would not be long before they went there again. He said he asked the churchwarden to come to the meeting, but he had sent a note instead, in which he said he would bear half the expense of the tea. The Vicar added that he would like to become an honorary member, and he was duly elected, with applause. One new lady member was elected. It was proposed to hold the next meeting at Elstow .- A vote of thanks to the Vicar for presiding, and for the use of the bells, was passed, and the tower again visited, when the methods rung ranged from Doubles to London Surprise, several of the local band ringing their first 120. The bells are the lightest peal of six in the county, the tener being Horsmon- only 51 cwt.

November 17th will be the 299th auniversary of the granting of a charter to the 'Ancient Society of St. Stephen's Ringers,' Bristol. who will attend their annual service at St. Stephen's Church, on Sunday next at 11 a.m., and dine together on the 17th. On the latter occasion a procession of the 'Don' takes place, and extracts from the actual charter are read.

After being suspended for a considerable time during the war, ringing has been resumed at Heston, Middlesox, for Sunday services at 10 and 6, and practice on Fridays at 8 p.m, except that there will be a united practice on the first Saturday in the month. A pantill accident has implemed to the following the course of his duties, had some of the fingers on his right, hand severely crushed. He has lost the top of his little finger, which in all probability will prevent him from taking part in ringing for some time.

Ex-Sergt. J. Williams who rang the 9th at St. Stephen's, Bristol, to a peal of Stedman Caters on the first of this month, thus scoring his first peal of Sfedman, did not, we believe, take up ringing until he was 60 years of age. He is now 67, and cycles from Newent to Gloucester every Thursday evening for practice at St. Michael's.

In contrast to the feeling expressed in the Swindon Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association, the North Forest Branch have determined to give whole-hearled support to the association's proposed war memorial, which is to consist of two bells. Collecting cards have been sent to all file towers in the branch.

THE STANDARD OF PEALS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—In many belfries, on the old peal boards, we read that So-and-so 'called ye Bobbes.' Now it is always 'conducted by,' Perhaps this difference may suggest a means of improvement in the ringing of peals.

In practice ringing it is quite right that the conductor should correct mistakes. He can stop and start again as often as he wishes just as the conductor of an orchestra can do in practice. ringing should be on a different plane, and ringers ought not to stand in for peals until they have proved in practice that they can strike a hell property, and really know the method for which they

I venture to suggest, as worth consideration, whether the standard of peal ringing would not be raised if the conductor's part were limited to 'calling ye bobbes.' He should also be expected to see that the striking was good; but if, in addition to the calls, he were limited to such interference, and if, when that interference had to be frequent, he were expected to stop the ringing, there would not be so many peals recorded, but the general standard would be much higher. The ringing of a peal would be the work of the whole hand. as it should be, and not depend largely upon the conductor. Ringers who did not thoroughly know the method would realise that it would be useless to stand in for a peal, and, if they wanted to ring peals, would take steps to learn methods.—Yours faithfully Thriplow, Cambs. E. W. CARPENTER.

WORCESTERSHIRE'S QUADRUPLE ACHIEVEMENT. At a branch meeting of the Northern Division of the Worcestershire Association, held at Northfield in June last, old ringing friends met for the first time for over four years. Visions of Surprise peals once again foomed up, and amongst the more advanced ringers it was decided to try and ring a peal each of Superlative, Cambridge, Bristol and London Surprise, before Christmas, 1919. A start was made for London Surprise at Oldswinford on August 5th, and was successful—a good angury for the next attempt, which took place in September, when a peal of Superlative was booked at Clent. In October a well-struck peal of Cambridge was scored at Brierley Hill; and Bristol Surprise, the next venture, at Stourbridge, the first week in November, was successfully brought round, and completed the quadruple achievement. Considering that some of the band had not touched a rope in the methods mentioned the performance is more than creditable.

A PRAYER UNION FOR RINGERS.

To the Edutor.

Dear Sir, — Tennyson has wisely said, 'That more things are wrought by proyer than this world dreams of,' so I want to suggest the practicability of starting a Prayer Union for the change ringers of Great Britain and overseas men. During a somewhat lengthy career as a ringer I have intimately known many God-fearing men, whose presence in the belfry has been, and still is, conducive of much good I delight in the happy link of brotherhood that is associated with ringers wherever they go, and would rejoice to see that link forged still strenger by a brotherhood of prayer, knowing that it would unmately benefit the whole ringing community. In the ringing of beas for Sunday services we receive the recognition of church workers, and it is up to all of us to show by our life and conduct that we are worthy of our calling. There is room for improvement in all of us, and that is the reason which prompts my suggestion. The beginning may be small, but I am firmly convinced that if we could get even one ringer in a tower to feel the obligation to pray at least overy Saturday or Sunday for his own associates, or ringers in general, the result would benefit the cause. The union could be run by the district secretaries of the Associations, who would simply keep a list of enrolments, and meetings could be fixed, to discuss plans and receive suggestions, at any annual or district gatherings. There need be no initial expense in starting, but if the Prayer Union grew it might be necessary to issue a membership card and general prayer

If the above commends itself to any of your readers, I trust they will not fail to express their views through 'The Ringing Worwhich exists for our mutual benefit.—Yours faithfully, 'Duffield,' St. Albans. G. W. CARTMEL. ' The Ringing World,'

RINGING IN DEVON.
OVERTAKING THE HANDICAP OF CENTURIES.

Sir,-When ' Stedman's Tintunalogia ' was published, change ringing had been in existence about 50 years, and the longest length so far recorded was 1,680. No doubt at that time you could have entered belfries within ten miles of Cambridge, where change ringing was quite unknown. The first six-score ever rung in Devon was at Kelly (within half a dozen miles of Brentor), little more than 50 years ago. In that interval peals on eight and ten bells in the four standard methods have been rung by resident bands in Exeter, Plymouth, Huntsham, Ottory St. Mary Tiverton, Ilfracombe, Withycombe, Raloigh, etc., to say nothing of various peals on six hells, including Minor in seven methods.

Of course, we are backward in Devou, but it is, perhaps, hardly gracious on the part of ringers coming from districts with 250 or 300 years' tradition of change ringing behind them to belittle the wholehearted efforts of many of the younger school (to which I can personally testify). Not only has Devon conservatism to be broken down -a large undertaking in itself-but; difficulties of communication approximate to those in the home counties 200 years ago.

The week after Mr. Bennett's letter appeared he had the opportunity of sharing in a peal attempt at Plympton. Unfortunately, after I hour and 20 minutes' ringing in which the striking would not have disgraved any band in England, his wheel cast the rope.

Had Mr. Buckingham mentioned "Grandsire" at Brentor instead of inquiring about half-pull or change ringing, he would certainly have had a different answer. Had he visited Kelly he would have found a strong half-pull band ready to ring with him. Moreover, half-pull bands have visited both Brentor and Buckfastleigh within the last few

A Guild meeting is to be held at Peter Tovy (almost adjoining Brentor) to-morrow, and without question there will be heard some excellent Grandsire. Stedman and Minor rung by country ringers, as well as by the Plymouth men.

Within a few weeks there will appear in the 'Ringing World ' (with your permission) a list of the local branches being formed throughout the county. If ringers generally will make a note of the addresses of the local secretaries and write to them when about to visit their district, they will learn what opportunities they will get of joining in half-pull, and at the same time will do much to encourage the local efforts being made to overtake the handican of centuries.—Yours, etc., Holbeton Vicarage, Plymouth. E. S.-POWELL.

Dear Sir,-I would like to thank Mr. Buckingham for his remarks. No doubt much can be done in Devon to promote change ringing, but if Mr. Marsh says I am wrong, as I have been informed since publishing my letter, then I need say no more. I have been told by Mr. Marsh and the Rev. E. S. Powell what ringing has been practised in Devon, and I am glad to see that the Dovonshire Guild are so far advanced. I was also told what work was being done to form branches, and I wish the Guild every success in its efforts. I may say I am now settled down to business in the Midlands, so, unforfunately. I shall not be able to have the pleasure of doing what I otherwise could have done for the Guild.—Yours truly Dudley, Woreester. AUBREY L. BENNETY.

DURHAM AND NEWCASTLE ASSOCIATION.

THE ANNUAL FESTIVAL.

The 42nd annual festival was held at West Hartlepool, on Saturday, the 25th October. Members were present from Newcastle, Whisley Bay, Cramlington, Shildon, Darlington, Gateshead, Houghton-le-Spring, and West Harticpool. A meeting of the committee was here Vestry of Christ Church, when the treasurer's accounts were presented, showing a balance in hand of £5 12s. 7d.

The annual service was field at Christ Church, when a most interesting address, not based on any particular text, was given by the Rev. Canon J. R. McDonald, Rural Dean. He made reference particularly to the Collects in the service arranged for the association's annual meetings, and also to the notice on the circular convening the annual meeting. On receiving the circular which mentioned kind permission of the Vicars, the bells would be available, he said he wondered where the churchwardens came in, and looked up the law on the matter. He read out the decision of Mr. Justice Phillimore, which sets forth that the Vicars alone had power to grant the use of the bells, and, therefore, the circular was quite in order. also mentioned that the service was specially meant to be on that occasion a memorial service to the late Rev. Harry Robinson, of St. Oswald's, who passed away after a short illness in the early part of the year, and made special reference to his goodness and to the work he had done to help the ringers in every possible way.

The offertory, amounting to £2 2s., was given to the fund which is being raised to provide a memorial to perpetitute his memory.

The general meeting afterwards was held at the Grand Hotel, the president, Mr. C. L. Routledge, being in the cluir. The Rev. W. H. Knowklen, Vicar of St. Aidan's, Strauton, and the Rev. A. W. Chute (the late Rev. H. Robinson's successor at St. Oswald's) were present. -A vote of thanks to the Vicars of the various churches for the use of the bells, and the Rev. Canon McDonald, was passed with acclamation, and the Rev. A. W. Chute replied. The officers were appointed as follows:-President, Mr. C. L. Routledge; auditor, W. Story; vice-presidents, for the Northern District, the Rev. Professor M. C. Potter; Western District, Mr. J. G. Green. The vicepresidents for the other districts remain in office according to rule for another twelve months

The district secretaries were elected as follows: Northern District, Mr. Whitfield, Whitley Bay; Eastern District, Mr. J. W. Parker Sunderland: Southern District, Mr. G. W. Park, Darlington; Western District, Mr. Summers, Hexham.—The sub-committee and peul referees were re-cleeted.

HON. SECRETARY'S REPORT.
The Hon. Secretary, in his annual report, stated that during the four years that the war lasted the operations of the Association were practically at a standstill, but it was with great hope that they could look forward to the future, and no doubt the Association would regain its former prestige. During the year 21 peals had been rung on tower bells, and in addition there were two peals rung on handbells. The list was as follows: Stedman Cinques, 4; Caters. 3; Triples, 7. Double Norwich Major, 5; Superlative Surprise, 5; Kent Troble Bob Major, 1. Included in this list there were four peals rung by members of the Newcastle Cathedral band in the Audlands in August. It was with deep regret that he had to report the death of the Rev. H. Robinson, Vicar of St. Oswald's, West Hartlepool, who died after a short illness. Mr. Robinson was a great triend of the Association, and always took a keen interest in the risiting ringers and those who had the privilege to have the pleasure of his acquaintance would remember his kindness and hospitality. They had also suffered a grievous loss in their old friend and life member. Mr. John W. Tuylor, of Loughborough. On April 12th, a memorial service to their 'fallen members was held at St. John's Church, Newcastle. This was largely attended, and those present would not soon forget it. In connection with this it should be mentioned that 37 of their members made the great sacrifice.

Meetings during the year had been fairly successful, and new mombers had been elected at each.

SUNDAY SERVICE RINGING.

In the 8, 10 and 12 tower sections, seven reports were received, and the points secred were: Cathedral, Newcastle, 810.7; St. Paul's Whitley Bay, 604.0; St. John's, Newcastle, 276.7; St. Ignatius, Sunderland, 255.7; Christ Church, North Shields, 203.0; St. George's, Newcastle, 165.9; St. Michael's, Bishopwearmouth, 105.1. In the six-bell tower three returns had come in, viz.; St. Cuthbert's, Benfieldside, 214.3; Holy Trinity, Darlington, 90.7; Wylam, nil.

The helfry reports were on the whole, much more satisfactory, and the local secretaries expect that by another year they will have got into full swing again. The report concluded with an appeal to the members to pull together in joy and cheerfulness, so that they might soon forget their trials and troubles, and look forward to better days

It was agreed that the subscriptions be increased as regard, ordinary members from 1s. to 2s., and honorary and active members from a minimum of 5s, to a minimum of 7s. 6d.

GILLETT & JOHNSTON,

The 17 cwt. tenor of the new ring of eight cast by Messrs. Gillett & Johnston, and hung by them at St. Stephen's, Clapham Park, and opened on the 7th of June, 1919,

SURREY,

The question of erecting memorial tablets to those members of the Association who have lost their lives in the war was left in the hands of the president and hon, secretary, to endeavour to make arrangements with the authorities. Suggestions were made that there might be two memorial brasses, one erected in Durham Cathedral and the other in Newcastle Cathedral, giving the names of the members from each diocosc.

The hon, secretary (Mr. G. T. Potter) tendered his resignation, but agreed to hold office untiled annual reports (which would embody the years 1914-1919) were printed and distributed to the members, after which a new appointment will be made.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD.

A meeting of the Gainsborough district was held at Kirton Lindsey on Saturday last, and proved very successful. A large number of ringers were present from Gainsborough, Stow, Corringham, Brigg; Scotter, Bigby, Barton-on-Humber (including five lady members), and Barrow-on-Humber.

The bells were kept going during the afternoon and evening, in Grandsire, Plain Bob, Treble Bob and Stedman. Tea was provided in the Vicarage 'long room,' to which between 30 and 40 sat down.

The business meeting followed, over which the Rev. H. R. Garvey. Vicar of Kirton Lindsey presided supported by the Rev. J. Barber (Rector of Stow). Four new members were elected, viz., Messus. G. Atkinson, F. Day and F. Garbutt (Kirton Lindsey), and W. Ellerker Stow.—The Vicar gave a very hearty welcome to the Guild, and the usual votes of thanks concluded the business, after which the tower was again visited, and further ringing brought a very enjoyable meeting to a close.

OXFURD DIOCESAN GUILD.

CHIPPING NORTON DEANERY BRANCH.

The autumn meeting of the Chipping Norton Deanery Branch was held on November 1st at Shipton-under-Wychwood, when the following towers were represented: Shipton, Ascott, Churchill, Chasleton, Todenham, Charlbury, Enstone and Chipping Norton. Several ladies took part in the ringing, and service was conducted by the Rev. J. Palmer, Enstone. The Rev. E. J. Johnson, Sarsden, gave a very interesting address. Tea was partaken of in the Town Hall, and a very enjoyable time was spent. The Rev. J. Palmer (chairman) presided at the business meeting. An apology was read from the Master of the Guild (the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn), whose unavoidable absence was much regretted, as it is always such a pleasure to see him at these gatherings.

The officers were all re-elected, and votes of thanks were passed to the chairman and secretary for their services in the past year, and also to the Rector of Sarsden for his address. Churchill was chosen for the spring meeting.

THE PEAL AT NEWPORT, SALOP.

To the Editor.

After submitting the figures of the Deal rung at Newport. Salon, to Mr. John Carter, I find that all peals composed on the lines of the Newport peal are his. I much regret the error. I would like to mention that the whole of the band who rang in the peal will be very pleased to know that Mr. Carter's name will be associated with it. should also like to add that Mr. Carter did not ask for the figures. They were sent to him, knowing he was the only man that could decide. Will all ringers and friends who take in 'The Ringing World' kindly strike out my name as the composer and put that of Mr. Carter?

TOLERATION IN THE BELFRY.

Dear Sir,—Kindly grant me a small space in Your next issue in which to make a further comment on the above subject. Before doing so, I would like to state that my provious remarks (which were written with a general and not a personal application) had no reference to any special incident, and that the question of lack of welcome to strangers most certainly had no reference to the particular beliry mentioned in your issue of October 31st. As, however, the subject has been made personal by the remark that my 24 years' experience in change ringing 'had not been made good use of, or I should be able to ring Stedman Caters,' I would like to say in passing that for the greater part I was attached to six-bell towers, and later to an eight-hell tower, where Stedman was not rung and that only during the war had I occasional opportunities of practising it. Previous to my coming here, I had not made more than four or five attempts to ring Stedman Caters, so that my recent, performances of seven well-struck course, is to me a very encouraging sign of progress, and not a sign of having failed to make good use of past experience.

But to god right away from personal matters, which cannot be contained to the contained of the c

But to get right away from personal matters, which cannot possibly be of any interest to your readers, the very important question of home study has been touched upon, and I am sure all will agree that it would be impossible to emphasise too strongly the importance of thoroughly acquainting oneself with the method before attempting to ring it, but how many beginners, even after they have committed the whole of the plain course to memery, can straightway go and ring it? They invariably find that whereas at home they were able to concentrate the whole mind on committing certain phrases to memory, a good part of their attention has now to be centred on picking out their places and working in conjunction with other belts. This is what is known as 'ropesight,' and I maintain that no matter how hard a beginner may study at home, or how expert he may become in theory, it is the practice and plenty of it that makes the ringer. So in maintaining my plea for toleration, never mind ocasional trips, start again, and still again, if necessary. I know it is very annoying sometimes to the experienced ringer, but never mind patience and plenty of good humour will win through until proficiency is attained.—Yours faithfully.
