THE 18 TON RINGING BELL, the Bourdon of the Carillon of 64 Bells, about to be installed at RIVERSIDE CHURCH, NEW YORK, U.S.A.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL.

An article which appeared a few days ago in the 'Birmingham Evening Despatch' was headed 'Bell Ringing a Dying Hobby.' It related principally to bell ringing in the city of Gloucester, where, from various causes, few of the rings of bells are now regularly rung. Regrettable as it may seem, it is true that ringing in Gloucester is but a shadow of its former self; it may be largely lack of ringers, and the difficulty of interesting recruits, but it is also in some measure, we think, due to the restrictions imposed by the church authorities, which are a distinct discouragement to those who would be willing to do something to improve the position of the art in the city. Time was when Gloucester was a great centre of ringing progress, inspired by the enthusiasm of the brothers James and backed by the interest and ability of men whose names became familiar throughout the Exercise. It is, however, almost beyond reasonable expectation to think that ringers will continue indefinitely an uphill struggle against dual forces of discouragement—the absence of willing learners and the indirect repression of church officials. Some day, we hope, the pendulum will swing to the other side, and Gloucester will once more become a city of example to the Exercise. Conditions are constantly changing. There have been many examples within living memory of companies which have become, for a space, centres of great activity, which have radiated enthusiasm and inspired interest, only to fade out of view again after, perhaps, a few years' success. Some have regained their former position, after an interval; others are still 'beneath the cloud.'

In the sister city of Bristol, where church bells are probably more numerous than in any other place of the same size in the world, there is not the same lack either of ringers or of facilities. It is true that every church possessing a ring has not got a company to man the bells, but this is not from any discouragement in official quarters; nor is it from want of enthusiasm among the ringers of the city. Bristol has many ringing guilds, and for the most part they unite in the common interests of their craft, but no one who follows the events of the day can have failed to notice a serious rift in the lute, which must be having an unfortunate effect both upon the interests of the art in Bristol and the affairs of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association. And the breach appears to be widening. We do not desire to assign reasons, or apportion blame, but for quite a few years there has been an undercurrent of feeling, which now appears to be breaking out into open hostility. Even in a city of the size of Bristol, where ringing can be had almost without stint, there is no room for animosities which may retard the progress of the art. Before the breach grows any wider we would express the fervent hope that all concerned should come together in a 'round table conference'; and talk over their differences, most of which could probably be settled with the exercise of a little tact and good intent. But if some real grievance still existed, let the hatchet be buried, the past forgotten and a new determination made to go forward as a really united body. Who will take the first step to bring this about?

There are still a few oak ash trays available for those who wish to have a useful souvenir of the Stedman Tricentenary. They can be obtained, post free, from the hon. secretary of the Central Council, Mr. G. W. Fletcher, 45, Walsingham Road, Enfield, Middlesex.

The souvenir booklets, containing illustrated details of the commemoration scheme, a specially written article on Fubian Stedman, the history of St. Benedict's Church and its bells, and a list of the subscribers to the tricenarian fund, can be obtained (8d. post free) from 'The Ringing World' Office, Woking.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD. WEST DORSET BRANCH ADVANCE.

The quarterly meeting of the West Dorset Branch was held at Bradpole on Saturday last, and was attended by upwards of thirty ringers from Beaminster, Bradpole, Bridport, Loders, Evershot and Lyme Regis, including Mr. Shute from Kington Magna and Mr. Griffin, of Yeovil.

The bells were in use at Loders and Bradpole towers during the afternoon, service being held at the latter church, conducted by the Rector, the Rev. C. W. d'Ombrain, and the address given by the Rev. L. Bartlett, Rector of Bridport, and Rural Dean.

At the meeting which followed tea in the Forster Institute, it was decided to hold the next meeting at Whitechurch Canonorum on April 9th, also to arrange an evening meeting at Chidecock at an early date.

The Chairman (Rev. C. Carew Cox) expressed the pleasure it always gave the members to come to Bradpole, honoured as it was by the memory of the work of the two pioneers of change ringing in West Dorset, viz., the Rev. C. F. Langford and Mr. T. Hervey Beams.

Heartly thanks were accorded the Rector of Bradpole for his welcome, the Rev. L. Bartlett for his practical address, the organist, and the ladies who were responsible for the lavish catering.

A special urge was given to those present to attend the jubilee gathering of the Guild in Salisbury on May 7th.

Further ringing took place afterwards at Bradpole, the methods rung showing a distinct advance on all previous meetings, comprising as they did Grandsire Doubles and Triples, Plain Bob Minor and Major, Stedman Doubles and Triples and Kent Treble Bob Minor.

DEVIZES BRANCH.

The monthly meeting of the Devizes Branch was held at Warminster on Saturday, February 6th. After ringing during the afternoon, the members assembled in the Minster for the Guild service, which was conducted by the Rev. A. R. Bellars, Vicar, assisted by the Rev. M. W. Willson, Mr. Simonson being at the organ. Tea followed at the Magnet Cafe, when 32, including the Vicar, sat down. The business meeting followed. Mr. C. D. Heginbotham, branch chairman, who presided, paid a tribute to the late Mr. Thomas Ricketts, of Swindon, who, he said, was a great worker for the branch in its early days, having conducted the first peals for most of the older members. He asked those present to stand in silence for a few moments as a tribute to his memory.

The chairman went on to congratulate the members of St. James' tower, Trowbridge, on having rung a peal of Stedman Caters, this

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION WESTERN DIVISION.

The annual meeting of the Western Division of the Sussex Association took place at Heene on Saturday, more than 25 members being present from Brighton, Billingshurst, Hove, Heene, Lindfield, Steyning, Shoreham, Washington, Warnham and West Grinstead.

A short service was conducted by the Rector of Heene, the Rev. E. A. Haviland.

Tea was served at the Parish Rooms, and the short business meeting that followed was presided over by the Rector, who was elected an honorary member. The following new members were also elected: Edward Chandler (Heene), John Standford (Warnham), P. F. G. Duneton (Kirdford), G. Nickoby, A. Nickoby, J. Laker, S. Gill and J. Brown (Rudgwick), and Mr. H. Mullard (non-resident member).

Mr. A. W. Groves was again elected district secretary, and Messrs. Chandler, Adams and Norris as representatives of the division on the general committee. Messrs. Greenfield, Burdfield and Lindup were appointed as members of the Committee of Advice.

Mr. A. D. Stone, the general secretary, read the notice inviting members to attend the coming all-England ringers' meeting, to be held at Croydon on April 2nd.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Rector for granting the use of the bells and for presiding.

Ringing in a variety of methods took place during the afternoon and evening.

being the first by an entirely local band, also the first by resident members of the Guild, and showed what good work was being put in at that tower.

The following new members were elected: J. Giddings (North Bradby), O. Wrintmore (Westbury), and B. Cooper (Seend), while Sidney Francis, of Trowbridge, was re-elected.

It was suggested that the next lecture on ringing, which will be given by Mr. C. F. Andrews, of Trowbridge, should take place at Westbury (if it can be arranged) on February 22nd, which will enable members in the southern part of the branch to attend.

The usual votes of thanks having been passed, the members returned to the tower, where the bells were kept going until 8.30, the following methods being rung: Double Norwich, Kent Treble Bob and Plain Bob Major, Stedman and Grandsire Triples and Doubles, and Bob Minor, with rounds for those who wished them. Representatives attended from the following towers: Devizes, St. John's and St. Mary's, Westbury; North Bradley, Heytesbury, Bishop's Cannings, Bratton, Urchfont, Corsley, Warminster, Melksham, Trowbridge, and visitors from Mere, Zeals, Frome, and Bath.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

It is a curious coincidence that the longest peal of Doubles and the record length of Minor were rung on February 27th. The former, consisting of '10,080 changes or 84 peals,' was performed at Whaplode Church, Lincolnshire, in 1775, by Wm. Jackson, Rield. Harwood, Wm. Money, Stepn. Davis & Richd. Pottengor, who 'raised & settled the Bells in 7 hours and 25 mins.'

The longest peal of Minor was the famous 15,120 in 21 methods at Wath-on-Dearne, Yorks, in 1816.

To-morrow's gathering at Birmingham is a reminder that Henry Johnson, one of the most famous of nineteenth-century ringers, was born on February 28th, 1809.

'Many happy returns' to the veteran Mr. John Jagger, who was born at Oxford on March 3rd, 1861.

On Shrove Tuesday (March 3rd), 1778, a peal of 10,260 Grandire Caters 'was rung upon the deep, melodious peal of ten bells at St. Mary's Church in Nottingham, being the first and only attempt ever made for the same.' The peal, adds the old record, was performed by eleven men of the old Nottingham Society, 'the tenor as customary with bells that weight was rung by two men and the other nine singlehauded. St. Mary's bells are the heaviest peal of ten bells within one hundred miles of the place, York Minster excepted.'

Mr. C. N. Burdock, of Guildford, who has been twelve weeks in the Surrey County Hospital, where he has been twice operated on, is, we are pleased to say, making good progress towards recovery, and is now home. He tenders his heartfelt thanks to many ringing friends for their kind inquiries and good wishes. Mr. Burdock has been associated for a long period with the Cathedral Society at Guildford.

Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, who have just completed the re-hanging of the peals at Little Missenden (5), Chilton, Wilts (5), Marden, Wilts (5), Nocton, Lincs (6), Ardeley, Herts (6), and St. Peter's, St. Albans (10), are casting the three trebles of a future peal of eight to be hung for ringing at Barking-side.

In recognition of his 25 years' service as captain of the ringers at St. James' Church, Poole, Mr. F. W. Townsend, this year's Ringing Master of the Wimborne Branch of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild, has been presented with an illuminated address, signed by past and present ringers at Poole, and a handsome armchair. Change ringing was instituted at Poole by Mr. Townsend, who has also given valuable help to visiting ringers from other towers.

THE BRISTOL 'INSULT.'

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I think that Mr. Skidmore has achieved something like notoriety, especially considering his membership of the G. and B. Association only dates from 1928. Since August last he has complained to me about the actions and words of no less than four of our members, and now I am added to the list, to make it a 'nap hand.' The most serious of these complaints concerned the hon. secretary of the Gloucester and Bristol Association, about the opening of the bells at Yate on December 22nd last. Why did he not mention this at St. Philip's? I should like to ask him, through you, sir, 'Did he not go off the "deep end" when he read in the Bristol Press that the bells at Yate would be opened by a band of the B.U.R.G.? Did he not get me to promise to write a letter on the subject? Did he not refuse to ring at the opening? Was he not upset because all the correspondence was written on B.U.R.G. notepaper?' The letter from the hon. secretary to the Vicar of Knowle, asking for official recognition at the opening, both for the association and the B.U.R.G., was also written on B.U.R.G. notepaper.

The ringing for the opening of the bells at Holy Nativity was performed by the G. and B. Association all right, and had the band rung a peal it would have been a G. and B. peal; the twopences would have been paid, and the peal entered in the peal book. Not only was it a G. and B. band, but a worthy and honourable band, and, what is more to the point, an efficient band, a band whose membership of the association averaged 30½ years.

Passing on to Mr. Braven's 'offence,' I should like to associate myself with Mr. Amos' approval of the speech. Trades unions must do a good work among their members or they would not flourish, but those outside only hear of their strikes, lock-outs, picketing, boycotting, and of forcing unwilling persons into membership. If Mr. Skidmore wishes, and you, sir, consent, I will give particulars and dates of each of these being practised by the Bristol Branch of the G. and B. Association, under the guise of the B.U.R.G.

If you think, Mr. Editor, that it would be as well for me to give the reason I did not advise an official invitation being sent to the association, I will give it. I can assure you, though, that nothing Mr. Skidmore did or did not do had anything whatever to do with it. I must tell him, however, that my promise to assist him as much as possible in the event of his taking over the secretaryship of the Gloucester and Bristol Association from Mr. Guise is absolutely withdrawn.—Yours truly,

W. A. CAVE.

THE COLLEGE YOUTHS.

THE ORIGIN OF THE NAME.

BY R. A. DANIELL.

If it were necessary to the possibility of the traditional origin of the College Youths' name that Whittington's College should still have been in existence in 1637, of course the tradition cannot be supported. But I do not accept that necessity. It is not the accuracy, but the persistence of a name that seems to me the material point.

To illustrate my meaning, let us suppose the existence of a ringing society founded in 1637, having the name 'Abbey Youths,' of the origin of which name we had no certain knowledge, but a tradition that it arose from some connection with Westminster Abbey. Should we say, 'That tradition cannot possibly be true, because in 1637 there was no Abbey at Westminster?' Surely, we should not say so. Yet there was no Abbey at Westminster then any more than there is now. The Abbey had been dissolved in the sixteenth century; the community was then dispersed, and its buildings suffered some destruction and some adaptation to new uses. Some, including the church, remained, and those who had known the place when it was an Abbey and had witnessed its dissolution did not alter the name by which they had been used to call it; their younger contemporaries spoke of it as did their elders, and overlapping generations have done so ever since. Who of us speaks of it as 'The Collegiate Church of St. Peter, Westminster,' which has been its correct name since Queen Elizabeth's time?

This persistency of the names of dissolved communities and their buildings, common throughout the country, has left many traces in London. The dissolution did not involve the entire disappearance of buildings from the face of the earth. It was nothing like the clearance of an area for a railway terminus or a housing scheme; there was always something left, and so the old names continued. Whitefriars, Blackfriars, St. Martin's-le-Grand, the Minorites and others still belong to the old sites, and in the seventeenth century there were existing building remains of them all. Even to-day we can see some at St. Bartholomew's Priory, Smithfield, at Austinfriars and at the Charterhouse.

In the same way, Whittington's College at St. Michael's in Royal Street would have been called a College till its dissolution. That was its proper name. In the same way, too, its name would be perpetuated after its dissolution. The City of London was not a mass of offices and warehouses where few people lived; it was not only a city of business but also a city of homes, in which persons of all classes resided, where, in short, traditional names lingered. Of Whittington's foundation, the almshouses remained in the seventeenth century, and, in particular, the church. The accommodation for the priests may have disappeared, but it is much more likely to have remained in a more or less altered condition to suit requirements of residence or trade. There was certainly enough of the old buildings to keep alive the old name. We learn from Stow, our authority for the condition of the city in the early seventeenth century, that the Tower Royal, after which Royal Street was named, had by his time lost all connection with royalty, and was let out in tenements, and evidently the tradition of the College waxed at its expense, culminating in the name College Hill superseding Royal Street. 'Hill' is the name of several thoroughfares, two of them in the immediate neighbourhood of College Hill, rising from Thames Street to the higher ground, and it is probable that the ultimate change of name only recognised a popular use. At any rate, in 1637, there was, unless we are to suppose that for some unknown reason Londoners had deviated from their usual practice in this particular instance, ample College tradition remaining. Men ringing at St. Michael's would be ringing in the tower of the College in the same sense in which we still say men ring in the tower of Westminster Abbey. And here, surely, is a ready suggestion for a name of a society. There can be no good reason why a fancy name should not be a place name. The 'Scholars of Cheapside' had already adopted one.

I hope to conclude next week.

R. A. DANIELL.

CORRECTIONS FOR THE ANALYSIS.

To the Editor.

Sir,—For the sake of the accuracy of their report, I wish to draw the attention of the Analysis Committee to the fact that the peal rung at North Lopham, Norfolk, on February 15th, 1931, under the name of Double Little Bob Major, will be printed in the Norwich Diocesan Association Report for 1931 as Erith Little Bob Major, and the peal rung at the same tower and recorded as St. Clement's Bob Triples, should have been described as St. Simon's Triples, and will appear under this title in the aforementioned report.

Incidentally, those who were interested in the peal of Superlative Surprise Major rung at Wymondham on August 1st, 1931, should note that two bobs in a lead of a peal of Superlative, or any other method, cannot in any sense be termed a 'spliced' peal, and that the composition in question did not and could not exist as a true peal until the first course had been produced.

I regret these corrections have not appeared before. I had anticipated them from another quarter, although they were conducted by yours faithfully,

NOLAN GOLDEN.

'DISTRICT MEETINGS.'

'STALWARTS' WHO DO NOT ASSIST.

To the Editor

Dear Sir,—I was more than interested in your leading article of last week, February 19th, and feel that it calls for a certain amount of comment. Without reference to any particular association or guild, I should like to say that I have attended many of these meetings and found the same handful of 'stalwarts' referred to, who should, but do not, assist their less fortunate brethren. This, I think, is the reason why such a small percentage attend. How often it happens that six or seven people (all of whom have rung peals of London, Cambridge, Superlative, Bristol, etc.) will attempt and fail to ring a course and still attempt again, and yet, if asked to stand in for a touch of Grandsire Triples or Bob Major to assist another one on to the bottom step of the ladder, will at once advise putting in all of those who want to attempt it at once, and, in addition, when the first inglorious smash comes (as come it must), they immediately look around for another course of 'Surprise' (that wonderful word).

I have in mind whilst writing a meeting that took place in a tower where call changes were rung and STRUCK. The band of 'stalwarts,' which included some of the officers of the association, were anxious to make it into a change-ringing tower, and at the meeting they had three or four attempts (murderous attempts) to ring a course of LONDON (capitals, please). The tower is still a stoney tower. One could tolerate it a little better if these stalwarts would only get themselves out of bed early enough to ring for Sunday morning services, but they don't. They are always grouching about not being able to get youngsters to take up ringing, but they themselves are the cause of those who have started getting disgusted with it all. Scathing, but true.

No youngster wants to go to a meeting to sit down in the tower and watch these 'so called' expert ringers constantly attempting course after course of 224 changes each. One oftentimes wonders how it is that their names appear so often in 'The Ringing World' as having rung peals in the methods. Perhaps an umpire on the job would leave more space in the peal columns for articles of this nature. I am not ashamed to sign my name, and sincerely hope I have not used up too much of your valuable space. If I was a secretary (the people to whom I raise my hat) I should always be more proud to put in my report for 'The Ringing World' 'six or seven rang their first touch of Plam Bob and Grandsire and some their first of rounds on eight,' in preference to 'London, Cambridge, Superlative, Double Norwich, etc., etc., etc., were rung.'—Yours faithfully,

GEORGE GILBERT.

BRANCH SECRETARIES' ENDORSEMENT.

Dear Sir,—As a branch secretary, I would like to thank you for your 'leading article' in the issue of February 19th.

I wonder how many readers scan the front page, breathe a comment, and pass on without further thought. Yet the first column invariably contains a well-thought-out expression of opinion, naturally not always agreeable to everyone, but always worthy of real consideration.

The value of the various associations has been amply proved during the last half-century, and in order to continue the good work support must be given to local meetings.

I would like to urge all readers of this letter to refer back to this article and study it again. There will be some who, with a little reminder, can stimulate the interest of several others in their attendance at branch meetings.

If this end is attained, your work will be invaluable.—Yours faithfully,

CLAUDE I. DAVIES,

Branch Secretary,
Liverpool Branch, Lancashire Association.

Dear Sir,—As a branch secretary for twenty-one years, I can endorse every word of your leading article. I can assure you I get very disheartened at times at the poor attendances at meetings.—Yours faithfully,

F. J. LEWIS.

BOW BELLS.

We understand that the restoration of the famous ring of bells at St. Mary-le-Bow Church, Cheapside, London, which have for so long been silent, is shortly to be taken in hand.

A NORFOLK PEAL RESTORED.REDEDICATION OF BELLS AT SCARNING.

The bells of the Parish Church of SS. Peter and Paul, Scarning, Norfolk, were rededicated by the Bishop of Norwich on Sunday afternoon, February 14th, when they were rung for the first time for nearly a quarter of a century. The five bells have been rehung in the old frame with new fittings and cast-iron headstocks instead of the old wooden ones, and, among other modern innovations, have been fitted with ball bearings at a cost of £285. They have also been tuned on a modern tuning machine to ensure accurate tone, and a new treble bell has been added, tuned on a five-tone harmonic principle.

Mr. C. F. Johnston, of Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, Limited, Croydon, who have been entrusted with the work, said, as old peals go, it was one of the best that had been through his hands.

The Rector (Rev. W. Eugene Perkin) conducted the service at which the dedication took place. The lesson was read by the Rural Dean, the Rev. E. H. Townsend, Vicar of North Elmham. After the prayer of St. Chrysostom and the Grace, the vergers and churchwardens (Messrs. David Milk and Arthur Wright), with the Rector and visiting clergy, conducted the Bishop to the tower, where the churchwardens, taking the ropes of the bells, asked the Bishop to dedicate the restored bells to the glory of God and the use of his church. The Bishop, receiving the ropes, said, 'I solemnly set apart and separate from all profane and unhallowed uses these bells now dedicated to the glory of God for the benefit of His Holy Church.' The Bishop then prayed for those who answer the call to worship, for the negligent, for wedded folk, and for the dying.

As the Rector, vergers and churchwardens conducted the Bishop to the pulpit, a representative company of ringers of the Norwich Diocesan Association rang a plain course of Bob Minor.

The Bishop preached an appropriate sermon, and a collection was taken for church expenses.

The dedication service was attended by a large congregation, and the ringers present from East Dereham, Gressenhall, Fakenham, Reepham, North Elmham, Norwich and Saxlingham included Mr. Arthur L. Coleman, general secretary and treasurer of the association, and Mr. W. B. Duncan, hon. secretary of the North Norfolk Branch. As the congregation were dispersing, touches of Plain Bob and Treble Bob were rung until tea time, when the ringers were kindly entertained by the Rector to tea at the Village Hall, about 40 ringers being present.

After tea, the ringers adjourned to the bellry and rang touches in various Minor methods until late in the evening, much to the delight and enjoyment of the inhabitants of Scarning, after the long silence of their Parish Church bells.

NORTH NOTTS ASSOCIATION.

The first meeting of the year was held at Tuxford on Saturday, February 6th, when a large number of members were present from Collingham, East Markham, Edwinstow, Ganslon, Ordsall, Mansfield Woodhouse, Sutton-on-Trent, Treton, Warsop, and a few local ringers. During the afternoon and evening the ringers enjoyed the wonderful 'go' of the peal of six bells, which have recently been recast and rehung by Messrs. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough. The methods ranged from Plain Bob to London Surprise.

The business meeting was held in the bellry after tea at a local cafe. The Rev. R. F. Wilkinson presided over the meeting, and first remarked upon the loss sustained by the association by the death of the treasurer, the late Mr. Herbert Haigh. He said that he would never be forgotten by the association members. He asked them to stand for a minute as a token of respect to their departed friend.

Mr. Wilson, of Worksop, was proposed as a performing member, while Sutton-on-Trent added four performing members to the list, these being Mr. S. Hutchinson, Mr. M. Moxon and Mr. F. Carrot. All these were duly elected.

The place of the next meeting was left over for the general committee to decide. This and other committees will meet on Saturday, February 27th, at Ordsall.

The Rev. R. F. Wilkinson thanked the churchwardens for granting permission for the use of the bells, and hoped the time was not far off when Tuxford would have a Vicar appointed.

LANCASHIRE RINGERS' SOCIAL.POLICE HELP IN BIG BOLTON GATHERING.

The annual winter social of the Bolton Branch of the Lancashire Association this year was extended in the way of a joint meeting of the Manchester and Bolton Branches. On Saturday last the bells of Holy Trinity, Bolton, were open for ringing during the afternoon, and they were kept going in various methods until 6 p.m. Then, on an invitation from the Bolton Borough Police, an adjournment was made to their recreation room, where a billiards match had been arranged, but, owing to the large attendance, billiards was impossible, so the 'free and easy' got going before 7 p.m., and was kept up until 10.45 p.m.

The helm was taken by the vice-president, Sergt. P. Crook, and, with artistes galore, the 150 who attended felt more than satisfied that it had been well worth the long journey many had made.

Holy Trinity Church handbell ringers gave several selections on their four-octave set of bells, and 'touches' were also rung 'in hand' by others. Songs were rendered by Miss A. Potter, Miss Yates, Miss Birchby, Mr. Dootson, Mr. Brown, Mr. Norman Brown and Mr. Gash; duets by Miss Potter and Mr. Brown, and Mr. Gash and Mr. Brown. Miss H. Sandiford, A.L.C.M., elocutionist, also entertained. Mr. Grime gave selections on his dulcimer, and Mr. C. Sandiford a violin solo. The humour was supplied by Mr. Gash. Community singing was also indulged in, 'community sheets' being supplied to all present.

Mr. J. Potter moved a vote of thanks to the Bolton Police for their kind invitation. He said it was a valuable asset to the branch to be able to have such a room at their disposal. He also thanked the artistes for their entertainment. Everyone, he was sure, would agree with him when he said this was the best social that had been held. The vote was seconded by Mr. R. Fiddes, and carried by acclamation.

The Chairman said he did not know on which side to speak. He was one of the 'invited' and one of the 'inviter', but he supported the thanks to the artistes for the way they had come forward. He also said that what had been in his mind during the evening was, if the numbers increased each year as they were doing, he would have to find a larger room. The police were having new premises built, and he hoped that next year they would have the pleasure of being accommodated with everything up to date. On behalf of the police, Sergt. Crook extended a hearty invitation to the ringers to the bowling green and athletic ground on August 6th next.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.READING BRANCH.

The annual meeting of the Reading Branch of the Oxford Diocesan Guild was held at Reading on Saturday, February 6th.

During the afternoon, rounds for the beginners and touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Grandsire and Stedman Caters, Stedman Cinques, Treble Bob and Double Norwich were rung on the bells of St. Mary's, St. Laurence's, and St. Giles' Churches. A well-attended service followed at St. Giles', conducted by the Rev. C. F. Band, who gave an appropriate address. Fifty-seven members from the branch towers, including the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn (Master), Mr. A. J. Wright (treasurer) and Mr. R. T. Hibbert (secretary of the Guild), Canon Coleridge, Mr. W. S. Pearton, Mr. L. Joyee (branch chairman), Mr. F. W. Hopgood (branch treasurer and secretary), and visitors from Fairford, Bushey, Maidenhead, Newbury, Slough, Oxford, Cookham and Datchet then attended the excellent tea at the Central Girls' Club Hall, Chain Street.

The business meeting followed, at which the balance sheet was read and adopted. The secretary's report showed another successful year, with an increase of honorary and ordinary members, and an increased balance. Successful and enjoyable quarterly meetings had been held at Shipplake, Nettlebed and Mortimer. Mention was made of three members whom the branch had lost during the year by death.

All the officers were unanimously re-elected, namely: Chairman, Mr. L. Joyee; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. F. W. Hopgood, with his assistant, Miss M. Hopgood; auditors, Messrs. A. Wiggins and E. G. Foster; committee, Messrs. J. Swain, W. Appleby and H. Tucker. They were thanked for their services during the past year, and each suitably responded.

The quarterly meetings for 1932 were arranged for Shinfield, Checkendon and Henley. Apologies for absence were read by the chairman, who also welcomed the visitors, for whom Mr. T. J. Fowler responded.

Satisfactory tower reports were given from most of the branch towers. Good Sunday ringing had been maintained throughout the year.

The Master, in referring to general matters, asked the ringers to give more support to 'The Ringing World'; mentioned the Stedman Tercentenary fund for the restoration of the fine old Saxon tower at Cambridge; and spoke of the healthy state of the branch.—The meeting voted £2 2s. to the restoration fund.

Mr. Maurice Hibbert, of Bushey, was made a non-resident life member of the Guild.

The Chairman then expressed the thanks of the meeting to the Vicar, organist, and choir of St. Giles' for the beautiful service which had been held.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.NO NOMINATION FOR SUCCESSOR TO RETIRING SECRETARY.

The annual general meeting of the Yorkshire Association was held at Pontefract. By the courtesy of the respective clergy, the bells of All Saints' and St. Giles' Churches were available for ringing, and these two beautiful rings were used extensively during the day. The day being fine, a large and representative gathering was brought together, who much enjoyed the bells and exploring the nearby ancient castle grounds and ruins. The day's proceedings commenced with the audit, which was conducted in All Saints' Church Room by Messrs. Holder and Applegate. Service was held in All Saints' Church at 4 p.m., when the Rev. F. E. Hayward preached an interesting and forceful sermon in the unavoidable absence of the Lord Bishop of Wakefield, who was unable to be present through illness. An excellent tea was served in the Church Room, where some ninety members availed themselves of the facilities afforded them.

The business meeting followed, with the president (Rev. C. C. Marshall) in the chair. He was supported by the Rev. A. G. Shipley (Vicar of All Saints') and the principal officers of the association.

In presenting the report of the committee, the President called the special notice of members to the wide variety of methods in the peals rung during the year, and also to the balance in hand at the year-end of £3 14s. 3d. on the year's working, despite the fact that during this year all members who had joined the association prior to and including the year 1895 had been made life members of the association.

A special vote of thanks was accorded Mr. W. Barton for his compiling of the peals report.

A vote of thanks to the clergy for granting the use of the bells at All Saints' and St. Giles' was responded to by the Rev. A. G. Shipley (Vicar of All Saints'), who in turn received the greeting extended by the members to an old and honoured friend.

A vote of thanks to the local company was moved and seconded by Messrs. C. D. Potter and F. G. Sherwood respectively, and Mr. H. C. Walters replied on behalf of the local company.

It was decided, on the motion of Mr. W. Pearson, seconded by Mr. H. Morley, to hold the next general meeting on May 21st, the place of the meeting to be left to the general committee to arrange.

No nominations having been received for the post of hon. general secretary, in place of Mr. P. J. Johnson, who is retiring, it was agreed that the general committee be empowered to make any necessary arrangements.

A hearty vote of thanks to the chairman, moved by the Rev. A. G. Shipley, brought a pleasant and enjoyable meeting to a close.

Messrs. J. Ingham, V. Capley, V. C. Capley, E. Brooks, H. Broadhead, W. Dyson, R. Crosland, G. Cutt, C. E. Netherwood, F. Newton, J. E. Atkinson, J. Lindsay, H. Fordham and C. Cooper were elected as members of the association.

DEATH OF MR. F. EDWARDS, OF CIRENCESTER.

We regret to announce the death, suddenly, of Mr. F. Edwards, of Cirencester.

On Tuesday, February 16th, he was ringing as usual, and the following evening he attended a Masonic dinner. His death took place the next morning, Thursday, February 18th.

Mr. Edwards, who was a native of Tenterden, Kent, came to Cirencester about nine years ago, and soon identified himself with the social and business life of the town. He was chairman of the Cirencester Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association, a member of the Freemasons, a member of the Urban District Council, and an energetic member of the local branch of the British Legion.

He was not a great peal ringer, but was very fond of taking a party of ringers in his car to the various towers in the neighbourhood and testing the musical qualities of the bells, and, incidentally, helping the work of the association. The writer has had many pleasant trips with him.

The funeral took place at Tenterden on Monday.

A memorial service was held at Cirencester Parish Church on Sunday, when all the local ringers attended in a body, and there were also present the members of the Cirencester Urban District Council, the Cotteswold Lodge of Freemasons, and a large body of the British Legion. Amongst the various wreaths was one from the Cirencester ringers, and one from the officers and members of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association.

Mr. Edwards, a man of fine physique, was characterised by a friendly and genial demeanour. His friendship was worth having and keeping, and his untimely death will be deeply mourned by all who knew him.

On Sunday, after evening service, the bells were rung half-muffled. A short touch of Stedman Triples was rung on the minor eight (tenor 21 cwt. in E minor), of which he was very fond, by: F. W. Bond 1, W. G. Cook 2, F. J. Lewis, sen. (conductor) 3, F. J. Lewis, jun., 4, H. S. Parsons 5, H. C. Bond 6, H. Lewis 7, J. Roberts 8, and was followed by a quarter-peal of Grandsire Caters (1,259 changes) on the back ten (tenor 29 cwt. in D): F. W. Bond 1, W. G. Cook 2, H. Gassor 3, F. J. Lewis, sen. (conductor) 4, J. C. Eden 5, H. L. Cook 6, H. C. Bond 7, H. S. Parsons 8, W. H. Hayward 9, F. J. Lewis, jun., 10.

MIDLAND COUNTIES ASSOCIATION.NEW VICE-PRESIDENT TAKES A ROPE.

A pleasant meeting of the Peak District was held at Great Longstone, near Bakewell, on Saturday, ringers and friends turning up from Bakewell, Darley Dale, Dore, Great Longstone, Matlock, Norton-in-the-Moors and Tideswell. The bells, a pretty light peal of six, were rung with clappers half-muffled, owing to the death of a local resident, during the afternoon and evening, and some good ringing was accomplished in most of the standard methods. The district's new vice-president, the Rev. A. E. J. B. Barrow, the Vicar of Bakewell, was present during the whole of the ringing, in which he showed great interest, eventually being persuaded to take a rope under the guidance of the secretary, and, considering that it was his first attempt, performing in rounds very well indeed.

A very enjoyable tea was provided at the White Lion, presided over by the vice-president, and was followed by a short informal business meeting. A hearty welcome was accorded to the Rev. A. E. J. B. Barrow by the secretary, who assured him that his kindness in accepting the office and in promising to attend the meetings was greatly appreciated. To this the Vicar of Bakewell suitably responded.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Youghreave on March 19th, if possible, where the fine peal of eight (tenor 27 cwt.) should be an attraction.

Votes of thanks to the Vicar of Longstone and the local company closed the proceedings.

JOINT MEETING IN THE NORTH.TWO ASSOCIATIONS MEET AT DARLINGTON.

A joint meeting of the Cleveland and North Yorkshire Association and the Southern Division of the Durham and Newcastle Association was held at Darlington and proved a huge success. Some thirty members of the two associations attended, and the bells of the Parish Church were ringing soon after mid-day. During the afternoon a party was sent from the Parish Church to St. John's, and both peals were kept ringing merrily. A short visit was paid to St. Cuthbert's after the tea, but the gathering soon divided again, and the bells of Holy Trinity and St. John's were kept going till a late hour.

A feature of the meeting was the good ringing, touches of Grandsire, Bob Major, Kent Treble Bob, Double Norwich and Superlative being obtained at the eight-bell towers, whilst Plain Bob, Kent, Oxford, Cambridge, and London Minor were rung on the six bells of Holy Trinity.

Meetings of the two associations were held immediately after tea, and the Vicars and churchwardens of the three churches were thanked for the use of the bells, and the appreciation of the ringers was expressed to those in charge of the arrangements, which proved so successful.

The next meeting of the Southern Division of the Durham and Newcastle Association was arranged to be held at Bishop Auckland on Saturday, March 5th.

Altogether it was a good day; the weather was fine, the ringing was excellent, and the meal ample and good. What more can a ringer desire?

YAXLEY CHURCH BELLS RESTORED.

The dedication of the restored ring of six at Yaxley, Peterborough, took place on Sunday, February 7th, the ceremony being performed by the Lord Bishop of Ely.

The original ring of four was installed in 1721, and two trebles were added in 1881, when the old 3rd was recast. These did service until four years ago, when No. 4 became cracked, and ringing was discontinued.

The cracked bell has now been recast, the remaining five tuned and quarter-turned, and the whole peal hung in a new teak frame with new fittings, including cast-iron headstocks and ball bearings.

Immediately after the dedicatory prayers, the bells were rung by members of the local band, while touches in various methods were rung after the service by visitors, including Mr. C. F. Johnston, of Croydon, and ringers from St. Mary's and St. John's, Peterborough, Great St. Mary's, Cambridge, Ruckden, Market Deeping, and Deeping St. James, Folkingham, All Saints', Stamford.

The work has been carried out by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, of Croydon, and the smooth running of the bells and the excellent 'splice' of the new bell with the old five, which have been carefully tuned, testify to the splendid workmanship with which the contract has been carried out.

CORSLEY, WILTS.—For evening service, on Sunday, February 7th, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Doubles: J. Fricker 1, B. Ham 2, H. Moody 3, N. Kne 4, E. F. Marlow (conductor) 5, T. Snelgrove 6. The 4th and 5th ringers are from Warminster, the others are Corsley ringers. First quarter-peal for ringers of 1, 2 and 6, and first 'inside' for N. Kne.

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Hon. secretaries of affiliated societies are again reminded that subscriptions became due on January 1st.

The attention of members is drawn to rule 9, and in order to comply with this rule notices of motions must be sent to me forthwith.

It is proposed to apply for cheap travelling facilities for the Plymouth meeting, and it is desired to submit a complete schedule of the tickets required. Will all members and visitors, therefore, kindly send me a postcard with answers to the following questions:—

1. Name.
2. If cheap facilities are obtained, are you willing to travel by train?
3. Station of departure.
4. Date of departure.
5. Date of return.
6. Single fare from station of departure to Plymouth.
7. If necessary, are you willing to book in advance?

Hon. Secretary.

BELLS FOR SHANGHAI.

The present trouble around Shanghai adds interest to the fact that Messrs. Mears and Stainbank are shipping to that much harassed city a chiming peal of eight bells, which are to be erected at Holy Trinity Cathedral.

Another peal for overseas is to be made at the Whitechapel Foundry. This is an octave with a tenor of 30 cwt., to be hung for ringing at Hamilton Cathedral, New Zealand.

AN OLD RINGER OF OLD WINDSOR.

FAREWELL TO A VETERAN.

Mr. Joseph Gutteridge, of Old Windsor, passed away on Wednesday, February 3rd, in the 83rd year of his age, much regretted by members of the Oxford Diocesan Guild of Bellringers and the Brotherhood of Gardeners in the Berks and Bucks district.

The funeral took place at the Parish Church of St. Peter on Saturday, February 6th, the service being conducted by the Rev. J. Russell-Napier, M.A., who held a long friendship with the deceased before moving to Sussex. The family of two sons—both change ringers—and ten daughters (with one exception) were present, as well as a number of relations and friends, and some beautiful wreaths were placed round the grave.

Berks and Bucks ringers assembled at the tower, four on each side of the belfry, as the coffin was borne into the church, and afterwards rang touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples with muffled clappers as the corège left the church for the burial ground.

Born at Mapledurham, Oxon, where he learnt to ring, the late Mr. Gutteridge's first migration was to Epsom, the next to Old Windsor, where he was employed by the Romain family for two generations at the Priory Gardens.

The deceased was an authority on the sweet pea and the English rose, and there were few flower shows in the district without his exhibits. He won outright the challenge bowl at Reading and many prizes elsewhere, and served on the committee of the Windsor Rose Society.

For 43 years he ably filled the office of parish clerk and vergier, and many a dry anecdote can be related of him. On one occasion a strange clergyman, asking after his family, was informed by the vergier that he had 'a L of a family.' It transpired that all the daughters' Christian names began with that letter. Once a visiting London ringer was inquiring of Mr. Gutteridge what they rang. He at once asked the questioner if he could ring 'London.' On being told, 'Yes,' replied, 'Ah! we can't.'

A presentation watch was given him by the parishioners in appreciation of his long service, and his employer, Mr. Colin Romain, gave him a pension and cottage for life.

As a change ringer, Mr. Gutteridge had rung about 50 peals, mostly in Grandsire, Oxford Bob and Stedman Triples. His first, on January 10th, 1891, the year after the octave was made, was conducted by Mr. J. W. Wilkins, in which the writer took part. His last peal was in 1924, with the young band of Welling's boys, and he remarked, when the bells came home, 'It's about time I gave up!'

In 1884, the six-bell team—speaking plainly—were sacked by the Vicar for not staying to the service. In January, 1885, a new team was raised by Mr. Gutteridge as foreman, and from that date many a pupil has raised a blister with Joe's help. He was always very proud of the prowess of one of his lads, Mr. Wm. Welling, who was unfortunately laid up (with his wife and family) and unable to attend the funeral ceremony.

A muffled peal of Grandsire Triples was attempted the following week, and was lost a few leads past the half-way Single. The following ringers took part in showing their respect to the passing of a faithful servant of the belfry: Messrs. H. G. and R. Owen, H. Cropley, T. S. Smith, W. H. Fussell, T. G. Leader, L. Stilwell, T. Farr, A. Bateman, R. Franklin and W. Tyndall (conductor).

EXPULSION OR RETIREMENT?

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Your leader of February 5th shows that we are still at such cross purposes that I must write again, although I had hoped I had said my last word.

The Axioms which you published on February 5th are not (as you put it) in addition to the previous resolution, but in substitution thereof. The original resolution was passed in plenty of time to allow for criticism, which it certainly got; and now, as a result of this criticism, these Axioms have been evolved. They convey what we wanted to be conveyed before, but the previous resolution was so concise that it was not unreasonably misunderstood. These are the actual 'effective measures' which you ask us to tell the world at once. Of course they will not be effective in expelling any member from our Guild or any other body; but, as I have so often said, that never entered our heads, and has not even been mentioned among us. They should, however, be effective in telling members whether they ought to retire or not. In order to avoid further misunderstanding, I will hasten to add that I do not suppose there is a single member of any such body who would even think that he ought to retire. But the Painswick tablet has, quite unintentionally, of course, given the world to understand that there are such undesirable persons among ringers.

You, sir, would, I think, agree that anyone who would claim to have rung a certain number of changes when he had not done so ought not to be a member of any of our associations. I take it that your articles mean that it would be better in such a case (if the member would not listen to reason) that he should resign, than that he should be expelled. If so, we are all agreed. Thus the question now is, Are these axioms a good basis to work on? Apparently you think they are all right as far as they go, but that they do not go far enough. If so, I am inclined to agree with you. Further, I am prepared to survey the whole field, either in your columns, under such limits as you may suggest, or under the direction of the Central Council, with the help of such others as may be appointed.

This is, however, hardly a job which a single Guild can tackle. All it can do is to deal with such matters as come within its purview, as we have done here.

Two criticisms of the Axioms have been made. One is that those who ring call changes do actually ring changes. This is not the case. The changes, such as they are, which are heard in call changes, are the result of the calls, not of the ringing. The performers simply do what they are told, and their skill is shown by the quickness with which they do this.

The other criticism is that we do not actually ring rows, but changes. Of course the exact opposite is the case. No one has ever rung, or could ring, a change, if one is to be strictly accurate. We ring rows, and the rows make the changes. To be more accurate still, we do not even ring rows. What we actually ring are bells; and the order of the bells, as we ring them, can be expressed by rows, and when these rows are different, changes result. There is, however, nothing wrong in saying either that we ring rows or that we ring changes, as long as we understand that the expression is a concise or elliptical one. Much of our colloquial language is contracted in this way.

HERBERT DRAKE.

AXIOMS THAT DO NOT BEAR INVESTIGATION.

Dear Sir,—You are right, Mr. Editor, in saying that it is high time we had more careful and accurate definitions, and as a start Mr. Drake's axioms, A, B, C and D, will no doubt meet with approval.

Axiom E, however, states that in the case of false ringing there are more rows than changes; and axiom F that 'a claim to have rung the same number of changes as rows is a false statement.'

These two axioms do not bear investigation:—

1st change	{ 1234	1st change	{ 1234
	{ 2143		{ 2143
	{ 2413	2nd change	{ 2413
3rd change	{ 4231	3rd change	{ 4231
	{ 4321	4th change	{ 2413
5th change	{ 3412	5th change	{ 4231
	{ 3142	6th change	{ 4321
7th change	{ 1324	7th change	{ 3412
	{ 1234	8th change	{ 3142
8 changes, 8 rows.	Same number of each.	9th change	{ 1324
No repetition of rows. True.			{ 1234
		10 changes, 10 rows.	Same number of each. Two repetitions of rows. False.

Axiom E might read: 'If, however, there is one or more repetitions of rows, the ringing is said to be false.'

It follows from the above examples that when ringing is false there are fewer different rows than changes, which is a mathematical fact that Mr. Drake has overlooked in framing his axioms E and F.—Yours faithfully,

C. G.

A RINGERS' 'STRIKE.'

According to a newspaper report, the ringers of Neston, Wirral, have gone 'on strike' because they were not invited to a party given by the Vicar to the choir, as they had been in former years.

Previously, it appears, the choir and ringers were entertained by the Vicar and churchwardens, but this year the churchwardens did not participate, and the Vicar himself entertained the choir.

The Neston Guild of ringers have a very old set of rules which provide that all disputes among the ringers should be referred to the Vicar.
