OLIO

THE English language has the happy knack of borrowing any word from another country and fitting it to the circumstances of the moment. 'Olio,' the Spanish word for a mixed dish or hotchpotch, has through the centuries been introduced into the English tongue to represent a medley or miscellany, and it is a discursive article that the Editor submits to his readers this week.

The first point is from an Essex reader. Looking through his 'Ringing World,' he notices that there is a meeting in a neighbouring county—we leave our readers to guess where—and, accompanied by a friend, he decides to make the journey feeling certain that the welcome that is, we might almost say, 'universal' would be accorded him. 'Imagine our surprise,' he writes, 'when we spent half an hour in the tower and the one in charge absolutely ignored us. This is the first time in 26 years I have been in a tower and have not been asked to ring.'

Naturally, everybody sympathises with our Essex friend on making such a journey. We can quote other cases. A young ringer went 26 miles out of his way on a Sunday evening hoping to have the privilege of ringing at a provincial 12-bell tower. The company were ringing Doubles with cover bells and continued in this fashion for 20 minutes. At 6.20 when the time came to lower the bells he was asked if he was a ringer. On being assured that he was there was an expression of regret, but that it was too late now.

Another incident. A lady travelled some 120 miles to attend a meeting in one of Bristol's famous towers. When the Editor enquired whether she had enjoyed her visit he was told that she was ignored and did not have a ring. This we might add was not a recent occurrence and was not a meeting arranged by the Gloucester and Bristol Association.

Now the last thing the Editor desires in mentioning these three incidents is to start a general inquisition and various companies sorrowfully asking, 'Is it I?' The point that arises is how to make the stranger welcome. Some towers and areas take infinite pains to ensure that the visitor receives an opportunity to enjoy the bells and a friendly greeting is accorded the outsider. There are, of course, circumstances that make the reception not as cordial as would be desired. At a large meeting it is at times difficult to make certain that all visitors have been adequately catered for. Much, no doubt, depends on the visitor. We feel certain, however, that when that 'friendly keenness' is manifested in his face his wants, if possible, generally receive preferential treatment.

Regarding Sunday service ringing, one is tempted to ask how far should it be infringed to enable the casual visitor to have a pull. There are towers that pride themselves on their Sunday ringing. To them it is their best and constitutes for the ringers an act of worship. No choir-master would dream of asking a visiting singer to join his choir without knowing his qualifications and without a previous practice with its members. Ringing, like music, is very much a matter of team work. The perfect performance, or should we say the best possible, should always be the objective when made as an offering to Almighty God. It must be remembered that bells on such occasions are not rung just for the pleasure of the ringer. Their audible properties extend far and wide to the whole community. We hope that no towers treat Sunday ringing as another practice meeting, as an opportunity to try out new methods. These should only be introduced when the conductor is convinced that all the company have fully mastered the method. It is far better to ring Stedman perfectly for a service than to essay an excursion into a Surprise method with some of the company a little shaky.

Public performance is a difficult thing. A reader writes expressing his unhappiness at a handbell performance at one of those gatherings attended by hundreds of people. He felt that those who organised the ringing could have found in the locality better exponents. Probably this was a case of 'the sheep and the goats.' Ringing generally, like most organisations, is apt to get into too water-tight compartments. A good 'goat' will not mix with a good 'sheep.' Some might say, 'Why should they? I like my pals; why should I have to accept others because they are better performers than some of my friends?' The 'olio' is now embarking upon dangerous ground. However much we write on the subject no satisfactory solution will be found. There is something, however, in the principle of 'putting our best face to the world.' Big occasions, however, do create stage fright, and without attempting to solve the conundrum we implore all to exercise that greatest of all gifts—charity.

Pending the new committee meeting all communications except notices, reports and letters for publication in 'The Ringing World,' should be addressed to the retiring secretary of the committee, Mrs. E. K. Fletcher, The White House, Caister-on-Sea, Norfolk.

EDITOR: T. W. WHITE.

On his 75th birthday, Mr.
J. Doel rang his first quarter of Triples at Wincanton,
Somerset, on June 7th. It was 1,260 Grandsire
Triples, the band being J. Doel 1, G. T. Dyke
2, F. Symonds 3, Dorothy Lintern 4, S. J.
Pound 5, G. Chilcott 6, J. Lintern (conductor) 7,
R. Higgins 8.

The Editor, on behalf of the Editorial Committee, acknowledges with grateful thanks a donation of one guinea to help forward the finances of 'The Ringing World.'

Mr. H. L. Martin, district secretary of Ely
Diocesan Association, writes that Bottisham, Cambs. has five bells and not six as stated in the list of errors in the 'Guide to Church Bells of Britain,' published on page 205.

In an admirable review of 'Bells of All Nations,' Mr. Ernest Morris's latest book.
M.P. writes in 'John o' London' that 'it is a mine of information and delight, richly illustrated and with a good index.'

On the bicentenary of the first peal at St.
Mary's, Watford (Bob Triples, by the Eastern Youths on May 25th, 1751), a peal was rung in the tower by the Hertford County Association.
Participating in the anniversary peal was Mr.
F. W. Brinklow, of Oxhey, who is one of the few living people to have rung a peal on the original bells at Watford, which were recast in 1920: these being the bells on which the 1751 peal was rung.

June 6th was a great day for the band of young ringers at Shipbourne, near Sevenoaks, Kent, who are largely a self-taught band with no experienced ringer to help, except assistance from Sevenoaks. The following quarter was registered:—1,260 Plain Bob Doubles: Miss J.
French 1, Miss J. Vidler 2, Miss S. Jenner 3, Miss D. Colgate 4, R. Pankhurst (first as conductor) 5, R. Fairweather 6. First quarter 1, 2, 3 and 6.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The five bells of Malmesbury Abbey have been augmented to eight with the addition of three new trebles, and the original five retuned, the work having been carried out by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston. The dedication ceremony will be held at an early date before the bells are hung in the steeple. The opening day is fixed for July 14th.

Mr. Ernest Morris, by ringing the peal at Grendon, Warwickshire, has now rung a tower-bell peal at 240 different churches.

By the peal at East Farndon, Northants. Mr.
E. G. Bennett has fulfilled his desire to ring a peal at the village of his schooldays and at the church where he served as a choirboy.

A point of special interest in the peal of Kent Treble Bob Maximus, Granta Variation, rung at Newcastle-upon-Tyne on May 26th, is that the first peal of Granta Variation ever rung on twelve was conducted by W. H.
Barber on these bells on July 22nd, 1930. Mr.
John Anderson rang in both peals. Another member of the 1930 band was the late Mr. T.
H. Reeves, of Birmingham, who was a frequent visitor to Newcastle, and an honorary member of the Newcastle Cathedral band.

'We are all feeling very smug at having managed the first "all local" quarter,' writes Miss Joan Hills, of Grays, Essex. The event took place at Stanford-le-Hope, Essex, on June 3rd, and was a golden wedding compliment to Mr. and Mrs. T. Willis, Mr. Willis being former tower-keeper and verger. It was intended to get an outside ringer to call a quarter of Minor; he did not arrive and the Sunday service band decided to go for the quarter 'off our own bat.' Constance Chinnery, who had never called a quarter before, was the conductor and,
in spite of the late start, all went 'swimmingly.'
The band was H. Kenyon (first quarter) 1, Joan Hills 2, A. Reeve 3, A. Howell 4, Constance Chinnery (conductor) 5, A. Hammond 6.

NEW BISHOP'S MESSAGE TO RINGERS — MEMBERSHIP AND PEAL INCREASE — MR. G. L. JOYCE
A LIFE VICE-PRESIDENT — CONGRATULATIONS TO MR. ERNEST MORRIS

THE annual meeting of the Essex Association, held at Chelmsford on Whit Monday, was attended by 150 ringers and friends.

The service in the Cathedral was conducted by the Precentor, the Rev. J. Morgan James, with Dr. W. Stanley Vann at the organ. The lesson was read by the Master, Dr. P. T. Spencer-Phillips, J.P., and the address given by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Chelmsford.

During the service the names of members who had passed on during 1950 were read. Ringing members—E. Bacon (Loughton), E. A. Bowhill (Earls Colne), I. Cavill (Stansted), H. Collins (Braintree), W. Honeywood (Mistley), G. Jay (unattached, of Chadwell Heath), T. Jordan (Stansted), G. Lindridge (Braintree), A. Rolph (Hornchurch), W. Spokes (Danbury), C. Steward (Rayleigh), W. D. Taylor (Prittlewell). Honorary members—F. Jacob (Felstead), the Rev. J. P. Sutherland (Nazeing). Non-resident ringing members—D. H. Elliott (Groton, Suffolk), C. F. Johnston (Croydon), W. Pickworth (Kingston), G. Radley (Broxbourne), J. H. Shepherd (Swindon), G. W. Steere (Sutton).

THE BISHOP'S MESSAGE

The recently-installed Bishop based his inspiring address on Zechariah xiv., v. 20:— In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, "Holy unto the Lord"; and the pots in the Lord's house shall be like the bowls before the altar. Yea, every pot shall be Holy unto the Lord.'

The Prophet here is looking forward to the day when even upon the commonplace horses' bells—the bells were the normal ornament adorning the horses of those days—even upon the normal bowls before the altar there would be engraved some very special words 'Holy unto the Lord.' I say very special words because they were words that had a very great significance for the people of those days. They were the words engraved on a gold plate on the front of the High Priest's mitre.

I think it is true to say that the individual Christians are coming in a new way to see that the whole of life is God's gift and belongs to God, and must be offered to God, and, in fact, to be a Christian is to see the whole of life as God's, to live the whole of life for God, without drawing any line of distinction between the so-called secular and the so-called sacred, between our daily life and our Sunday worship. It seems to look back to the Victorian days when a well-known political leader was heard muttering to himself as he left a church on a Sunday having heard a sermon on religion and life: 'Things have come to a pretty pass when religion is allowed to interfere with one's private life.' None of us here this morning would endorse these words. Unless our religion transforms our private lives our religion might just as well be thrown on the dust heap.

If then the Christian ideal is that all our workaday life should be offered to God in worship, how much more so ought we to regard the ringing of the bells as something that we offer to God as an act of worship. When you ring the Church bells, not only are you offering to God, who is the source of all beauty, something very beautiful and very lovely, not only are you inviting men and women to come together as a family and worship in Church, you are doing something which in itself is, or should be, an act of worship, just as every act in your daily life is, or should be, an act of worship. Having worshipped God in the ringing of the bells, that act of worship is only complete as you join in the family of God, the family of God that you have invited to come together, and you offer your ringing, as all your daily work, to God himself, and you join the family of God in singing the praises of God and offering to God in true worship the ringing of the bells, and all your daily life and work.

May each one of us help to hasten the day when the Prophet's vision will be realised. In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses 'Holy unto the Lord.' The whole of life, however commonplace, set apart for the glory of God and offered in worship to God. In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses 'Holy unto the Lord', and if upon the bells of the horses, how much more so upon the beautiful bells of our parish churches, the bells of the house of God. In that day shall there be upon the bells of the churches 'Holy unto the Lord.'

A collection for the Bell Restoration Fund amounted to £3 19s.

The Master presided at the business meeting held in the Chapter House supported by the Bishop, the Deputy Master, the Rev. Scott Little, M.A., and the officers of the Association. After the adoption of Standing Orders, the Master extended a hearty welcome to all visitors and friends, with a special welcome to the Bishop of Chelmsford. Apologies for absence were received from Mr. E. J. Butler (life vice-president), owing to his wife's illness, and from Messrs. H. J. Mansfield and F. V. Gant, members attending the Central Council meeting at Chester.

The minutes of the previous annual general meeting were taken as read. Mr. Barnard (Rayleigh) raised the question of the Association badges. The secretary reported on the steps that had been taken and he had hoped that the contractors, Messrs. Denton and Down, Ltd., would have delivered the badges in time for the annual general meeting.

AN EXCELLENT REPORT

The 72nd annual report of the Association again showed that it had been very active throughout the year. Ringing membership had reached 832, an increase of 36, and hon membership 120, an increase of 50 per cent.

The General Committee had given much time and thought to Association business, backed up wholeheartedly by the local bands, and particularly the District officers. A bookcase had been provided to house the Association's library and in time this should be one of the 'highlights' of the Association.

Dr. Henry Wilson, Bishop of the Diocese, retired last autumn and the Association sent congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy retirement, one so well deserved. Congratulations and greetings were also sent to the new Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Sherard Falkner Allison, M.A.

Restorations had taken place at Foxearth, Bobbingworth, Sandon, Thaxted and Leyton and an augmentation at Fyfield, grants having been made in most of the cases from the Bell Restoration Fund.

Excellent work had been done to build up bands for regular Sunday ringing, with a few 'black spots' still left. Very promising recruits had been enrolled at Stebbing, Witham, Danbury, Sandon, Wanstead and Woodford. Hornchurch merited congratulations for having rung their eight on every Sunday throughout the year: one blank Sunday in the last two years was a record to be proud of. Mr. J. H. Crampton had arranged monthly practices on the ten at Walthamstow and the twelve at Chelmsford and in time these practices should bear good fruit.

PEALS INCREASE

A total of 75 peals was rung as against 68 in 1949. About 180 took part, 55 rang their first in the method, 9 their first in the method as conductor, 16 rang their first peal and 3 conducted their first peal. Twenty-eight shared the conducting, Messrs. F. B. Lufkin, H. Turner and R. Suckling reaching double figures. Miss S. Barringer (Stebbing) and Miss B. Candler (Black Notley) scored their first peals at the age of 14. Miss W. M. Elliott added fame to a ringing family by being the first lady to ring a peal at Kelvedon, whilst Mr. H. J. Millatt's calling his first peal, viz., London Surprise Major, at Colchester, was indeed a great achievement. Mr. H. Turner (Shenfield) added to his laurels by successfully conducting a peal of Double Norwich at Hornchurch, his own composition.

The outstanding peals of the year were the 12,740 of Bob Royal and Albanian Surprise Royal at Prittlewell, both conducted by Mr. F. H. Lufkin; Stedman Cinques at Saffron Walden, conducted by Mr. H. N. Pitstow; London Surprise Major at Colchester, conducted by Mr. H. J. Millatt; and Bristol Surprise Major at Leytonstone, conducted by Mr. J. H. Crampton. Quarter peals, though not recorded in the report, showed a pleasing increase.

In moving the adoption of the report, Mr. J. Chalk (Wanstead) congratulated Mr. F. V. Gant (Hornchurch) on compiling such a comprehensive and illuminating report. He mentioned the good work done by the District secretaries. He thought more could be done to rope in honorary members: at least three per tower should be possible. Roydon, Wanstead and Witham had set the pace, the last-named's list including the name of Dorothy Sayers.

Mr. G. L. Joyce (Hornchurch), in seconding, called attention to the steadily expanding library and desired that more use should be made of it. Messrs. A. H. Everett (Boreham), H. Turner (Shenfield), L. W. Wiffen (Braintree) and the general secretary contributed to a discussion on the correct numbering of the reports.

Mr. G. L. Joyce then proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. F. V. Gant for all his work in connection with the report. The Master seconded and endorsed what had been said, the proposition being carried with much applause.

INCREASED INCOME

The treasurer presented the accounts as printed in the report. Mr. H. Turner, auditor, dealt with the figures in the General and Bell Restoration Accounts. The gross income from the districts totalled £105 13s. against £101 11s. 6d. in 1949; £97 11s. 7d. was paid into the General Account. Peal fees added a further £12 8s. The balance at the end of the year stood at £198 13s. 8d., an increase of £8 9s. 11d. £33 3s. 9d. had been contributed to the Bell Restoration Fund against £38 3s. 8d. Grants amounting to £45 had been made, leaving a balance of £217 18s. 9d.

Mr. H. Turner proposed that the accounts be adopted. Mr. J. H. Crampton, co-auditor, seconded. Carried unanimously.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Mr. J. H. Crampton proposed that Mr. G. L. Joyce be made a life vice-president, an honour he thoroughly deserved. Miss H. G. Snowden (Bocking) seconded. Carried with applause. Mr. Joyce thanked the members for the honour bestowed upon him and declared that a life vice-president had still a job of work to do, viz., to help the Association in all it undertook. He mentioned that the election of the honorary officers appeared to be cut and dried but this was not the case as it was open to the members to propose anyone for these offices, but in order to save time at the annual general meeting the nominations were made at the District annual meetings.

The Essex Association—Cont.

The following were declared elected:—Master, Dr P. T. Spencer-Phillips, J.P.; Deputy Master, the Rev. C. Scott Little; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. R. C. Heazel; auditors, Messrs H. Turner and J. H. Crampion; trustees, Messrs. G. Green, E. J. Runter and H. W. Shadrack; life members, Messrs. W. Butler (Witham), E. W. Palmer (Shenfield) and E. Wright (Clacton); hon. members, the Rev. Burton (Vicar of Romford), the Rev. G. M. M. Lessor (Rector of Shenfield), Messrs. M. S. and H. J. Crellin (Wanstead).

The Master thanked the members for their continued support and agreed to take office for another year. The hon. secretary and treasurer thanked all for again electing him to the office and then in turn thanked the Master for his advice and support, the Deputy Master for preparing the agendas and précis of the meetings, Mr. F. V. Gant for preparing the annual report and all those who had assisted during the past year.

Mr. H. W. Shadrack (Springfield) thanked the secretary and Mrs. Heazel for all they had done on behalf of the Essex Association.

A discussion followed on the printing of quarter peals in the annual report. It was decided that those rung should be included in the report in an abbreviated form, as a single line.

Mr. J. H. Crampion requested that the methods in which peals have been rung for the Essex Association be published in the report. Mr. R. Suckling, peals secretary, said that he had the work in hand.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MR. E. MORRIS

The secretary read a letter on the new book, 'Bells of All Nations,' by Mr. Ernest Morris, Dr. Spencer-Phillips proposed that the book be secured for the library. Mr. J. Chalk then offered an autographed copy of the book to the Association for inclusion in the library. His offer was accepted with thanks. He then spoke of the great work that Mr. Ernest Morris had done for ringing and bells in general, commenting on his previous books and press articles. He proposed: 'That the Essex Association congratulates Mr. Ernest Morris, of St. Margaret's, Leicester, on his recent production, "Bells of All Nations," and extends its thanks for all that he has done on behalf of the ringing fraternity.' The Master seconded the proposition which was carried with acclamation.

The Master, before closing the meeting, proposed that a hearty vote of thanks be accorded to the Lord Bishop of Chelmsford for his fine address; to the Rev. J. Morgan James, the Precentor, for the use of the Cathedral bells and the Chapter House and for conducting the service; to the organist, Dr. W. Stanley Vann; and to all who had helped to make the meeting a success. The Rev. Scott Little seconded the proposition was carried with much applause. The members adjourned to the Cathedral Hall, where lunch was served by the catering branch of the Chelmsford Rural District Council, the Bishop and the Precentor being the chief guests. A buffet tea was in operation from 4.30 p.m. to 6 p.m., an arrangement that was appreciated as the day wore on.

During the day the following towers were open for ringing:—Chelmsford Cathedral, Broomfield, Boreham, Danbury, Galleywood, Great Baddow, Little Baddow, Sandon, Springfield, Little Waltham, Widford and Writtle.

AN IRISH PEAL BOARD

On May 19th, the 60th anniversary of the installation of the bells at SS. Philip and James' Church, Holywood, Northern Ireland, a peal board recording five first and special peals was unveiled by Mr. W. Pratt, president of the Association. The peals recorded range from 1932 to January, 1951.

The dedication service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. E. S. Barber). The representative company was afterwards entertained to tea by members of the local band.

HEREFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

AS has been customary for many years the annual festival and meeting of the Hereford Diocesan Guild was held on Whit Monday and this year it was at Leominster. The magnificent Priory Church has a pleasant old ring of ten and these bells were kept going from about 11 o'clock until the service at 3.30, and again after the meeting. Ringers arrived from all over the Diocese, which extends over half of Shropshire and the whole of Herefordshire. During the day parties visited the three six-bell towers in the neighbourhood—Eye, Kimbolton and Kingsland—and even the five bells of Stoke Prior.

Well over a hundred members and friends attended the Guild service in the Priory Church, which was conducted by the Rev. E. G. Benson, hon. secretary of the Guild. Mr. Benson also preached, taking his text from the verse of the Psalm: 'Their sound is gone out into all lands,' and spoke as a ringer to ringers.

After the service 115 ringers and friends sat down to tea at the Central Restaurant, filling it to overflowing. Following this the members of the Guild crowded into the largest room for their annual meeting at which Mr. A. T. Poulton, the retiring Master, at first presided. A message of welcome was sent by the Vicar of Leominster, who regretted that he was unable to be present owing to the Church Fete which was being held in the parish at the same time.

The first business was the election of the new Master, Mr. Leslie Evans of Eardisland, who at once took the chair. Mr. Evans also holds the office of peal recorder, which office the meeting was pleased to learn he was prepared to continue. The other officers were re-elected.

The hon. secretary and treasurer presented the accounts showing a balance in the General Fund of £87 15s. 2d., together with £16 5s. 6d. in the War Memorial Fund and £36 19s. 11d. in the Bell Restoration Fund.

The War Memorial tablet to be placed in All Saints' tower, Hereford, below the 1914-18 tablet was reported to be in hand and it would be ready for dedication about the end of July.

The report shows that there are 77 towers in union with the Guild and nearly 600 ringnig members. All Districts show satisfactory progress and 32 peals were rung during the year.

Amongst items discussed at the meeting was the question of a new supply of badges; and for the annual festival and meeting it was decided to go, if possible, to Coalbrookdale, in Shropshire, another ten-bell tower, but right on the border of the Diocese.

Altogether it was a very pleasant meeting and the members present and their ringing friends from away had an enjoyable day at the Priory and neighbouring towers.

SHROPSHIRE ASSOCIATION

Joint Meeting With Chester Guild

The annual joint meeting of the Chester Guild and the Shropshire Association was held at Market Drayton on May 26th, some 36 members from 13 towers being present, including Mr. F. W. Perrens and party from Coventry.

The service was conducted by the Curate, according to the rites of the Chester Guild. Tea was served in the Parish Hall and the usual lavish spread was in evidence.

During the meeting the secretary (Mr. E. J. Rowe) asked for a committee to be formed to discuss the southern half of the county. This was convened and the meeting will be held at St. Chad's, Salop.

The usual 'enthusiasts' special' left for Norton-in-Hales, where there was a welcome surprise—these supposedly bad-going bells were in good order. This surely is one of the smallest eight-bell ringing rooms in the country. On return to Market Drayton, methods up to London Surprise were rung but somehow Double Norwich 'wouldn't work.' Thanks are due to Mr. Langford, of the Chester Guild, and Mr. Fred Price, of the Market Drayton band, for the arrangements.

DEDICATION

ST. MARY'S, GUILDFORD

GUILDFORD has another six-bell tower with the rededication on Trinity Sunday of the restored bells of St. Mary's, which have been silent for 50 years. The cracked fifth bell has been recast, the bells mounted on ball-bearings and the ancient wooden frame strengthened, the work being carried out by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank. It was also necessary to place a concrete girdle around the Saxon tower. The bells are a mellow old six in keeping with the church.

When the bells were last rung, 50 years ago, Messrs. A. H. Pulling and H. Hutton were members of the band. After the rededication by the Bishop of Guildford, they rang treble and second to the customary minute rounds that followed. Other ringers were Messrs. W. J. Robinson, F. J. Munday, G. L. Clode and T. Mark White.

Special reference was made to the service to Guildford ringing by these two veterans by Canon R. G. Clitherow, priest-in-charge, who conducted the service which was attended by the Mayor and members of the Corporation.

Taking as his text Our Lord's words to Peter, 'Lovest thou Me more than thee?' the Bishop said he would give a different interpretation to the words and address them first to bellringers and secondly to church workers. He would ask that question of those who rang Church bells. 'I am not saying anything to those responsible for the task in this place but we know from other experience that it is not always the case that the bellringer comes down from the tower where he has rung to join with his fellow Christians in the worship of Almighty God. He is too often seen, having finished his labours, walking in the other direction. Did they love the Lord Jesus Christ more than their work? Did these secondary things take the first place in their lives? He would ask those who in that place were entrusted with this useful work to say the six words 'Lovest thou Me more than thee?'

The opening touch after the service of 360 Plain Bob Minor was rung by the same band that rang for the dedication. Afterwards a number of visiting ringers tried the bells.

The bells of St. Mary's are being rung for morning service by the ringers of Holy Trinity Cathedral as part of their regular Sunday ringing. For the time being, until present recruits are sufficiently proficient there will be no Sunday evening ringing. Visitors are asked to apply at the Cathedral first and if possible a band will be formed.

ARCHDEACONRY OF STAFFORD

The Spring meeting of the Society was held at Rolleston-on-Dove on May 19th. After three successive meetings in industrial towns it was pleasant to visit a country village, particularly at this time of year with the trees and hedgerows resplendent in their fresh green.

The members of the Society received a very hearty welcome on arrival at the beautiful old church from the Rector, the Rev. F. Abbott, and his address at the subsequent service will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to hear it.

An excellent tea, to which 40 sat down was served at the Spread Eagle Hotel, a typical English country hostelry on the banks of the Dove.

The Rector, who was present at tea, invited members to visit the Rectory garden which commanded a delightful view of the surrounding countryside, and the majority of the ringers and their wives availed themselves of this opportunity. The ringing during the afternoon and evening on the easy-going light ring of eight was greatly enjoyed. Altogether it was a most enjoyable meeting.

The next meeting of the Society will be the annual one at Lichfield on June 23rd.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

PEALS OF DOUBLES AND MINOR

Dear Sir,—I must draw attention to errors in your leading article of this week headed 'The Covering Bells.' The accepted rules adopted by the Council at Chester are as follows:—

PEALS OF DOUBLES

1. Peals of Doubles shall consist of 5,040 or more changes rung in:—

- True and complete Six-Scores, without interval between any two Six-Scores and without rounds or any other row being struck more than once before the next change is made.
- Round blocks consisting of two or more Six-Scores, provided that each of the Six-Scores which comprise the round blocks shall be itself a true and complete round block.
- Twelve-Scores known as Morris' and Pitman's.

2. Peals of Doubles may be rung with or without a covering bell.

PEALS OF MINOR

A peal of Minor shall consist of seven or more blocks of 720 rows. Each block to be true and complete in itself. The peal to begin from and end in rounds. Six bells only shall be used.

Additional touches. It was agreed that there should be no odd lengths added at the end of peals and that peals of Doubles should be in multiples of 120 and peals of Minor in multiples of 720.

Unorthodox peals. The Council also agreed that these should be published. By unorthodox it is meant a peal which does not comply with the Rules and Decisions of the Council. This does not only refer to a multiplicity of cover bells but to methods which do not conform to the Council's requirements, for example, Woodbine Treble Bob, Violet, Duke of York, etc. Since the Council meeting I have been wondering whether Plain Bob on odd numbers does not come under this heading!

I should point out that the definition of a peal of Doubles is that which was accepted in 1937 and that the definition of a peal of Minor includes Bankes James' Cambridge.

I am sorry to take up so much space but as one who did much of his early ringing on six bells and who still enjoys six- and five-bell ringing, I feel the position should be made clear to those who, either from force of circumstances or from choice, ring five and six bells.—Yours faithfully,

C. KENNETH LEWIS.

Altrincham.

NOTE.—The Editor regrets that the quotation given was from the previous Decision of the Council. We hope to publish at an early date the Decisions of the Council at Chester, together with points from the discussion. The point he was making in his editorial was how cover bells invalidate peals and quarters. Other letters on this subject are gratefully acknowledged.

NORWICH CELEBRATIONS

Dear Sir,—The official celebrations at Norwich in connection with the Festival of Britain will last from June 17th to July 1st. Any ringers in the neighbourhood during that time will be most welcome to share in our ringing at the following places and times: Mancroft on the Sundays at 10.30 and 5.45, also Monday, June 18th, at 9.30 a.m. and 12.30 p.m., and Tuesday, June 19th, at 7.30 p.m.; St. Giles' on Sundays at 10 a.m., also Tuesday, June 26th, at 7.30 p.m.; and St. George's, Colegate, on Sundays at 10.15 and 6.15, also Mondays at 7.30 p.m. For details of the Festival ringing meeting in Norwich on June 30th see the advertisement columns of 'The Ringing World.'—Yours faithfully,

GILBERT THURLOW.

SINGLE IN STEDMAN

Dear Sir,—In reply to J. A. C. King, the single in Stedman Doubles must be made in the third and fourth changes of the six. If made in the fifth and sixth change there will be a repeat in the six-score.—Yours,

E. V. WILLIAMS.

St. Columb, Cornwall.

METHOD SPECIFICATIONS

Dear Sir,—It is, perhaps, not surprising that Mr. J. E. Cook has received little information in these columns in response to his letter on page 283 of 'The Ringing World,' dated May 4th, 1951. A reason, both for this fact and for the cause of his query about the possibility of a sort of 'omnibus formula' for method-production, he may find satisfactorily given in a former series of articles entitled 'A Note on Method Structure,' in a paragraph headed 'N. Method Formulae,' on page 62 of the issue dated February 4th, 1949.

Mr. Peter White's reply to Mr. Cook (latest issue dated May 18th, page 315), will be found, if he will forgive my putting it this way, to imply only a very small part of the truth about this matter; although even what he says may be regarded as nearer the truth than some previous statements, which might be considered as rather extravagant. Mr. White's last sentence about the 'number of rows per lead' is restrictive, in so far as, put that way, it can apply only to methods of the hunt-controlled class. Indeed his phrase 'with few exceptions,' if it is to be considered as of general application, will be found to conflict with the facts.

Universal types of 'formulae' are hardly practicable in Method Structure; but a specification, mathematically deduced from the basic stage of any given method, will yield the theoretic extensions (and contractions, if any) for all its stages.

If Mr. Cook finds his problem unanswered by the article to which I have referred, and cares to write to me, I will endeavour to give an answer.—Yours very truly,

A. YORK-BRAMBLE.

Ringers Honour Crewe's Mayor

A peal of 5,067 changes of Stedman Caters was rung at Christ Church, Crewe, on June 2nd, as a compliment to the Mayor, Councillor John A. Madeley, J.P., M.B.E., himself an old Christ Church boy. The Mayor paid a surprise visit to the church and tower and was introduced to the ringers.

In the tower the Mayor saw, amongst others, two very interesting records; one, a tablet to commemorate the late James H. (Jim) Riding's ringing activities of 471 peals, three of record length, and a peal of Stedman Cinques at St. Paul's Cathedral. The other, a unique peal board recording two peals, one a muffled peal for the Fallen of the first world war, 1914-18, and a victory peal in which appears the honoured name of the late C. J. Bowen-Cooke as a ringer, Mayor of Crewe, and President of the Chester Diocesan Guild. Another interesting exhibit was a fine specimen of 'a ringer's jug,' which holds 11 quarts, and which it is the privilege of any ringer achieving his first peal to fill.

The Mayor said that although he was educated at Christ Church Schools, he had never been into the tower; he would like on some future occasion to see the bells at work; he thanked the ringers for the thought that prompted them to include him in the compliment.

The ringers thanked the Mayor for looking in on them before the peal, and thought his good wish for the success of the peal was a lucky omen. They wished him a very happy and profitable term of office.

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

Whitsun Tour, 1951

Twenty-three members and friends spent the Whitsun week-end at St. Leonards and were joined at some towers by other members and friends living in the locality. The main party stayed in the only guest-house the organiser could find large enough to accommodate everyone. It must be admitted that there were some restrictions involved, but they were not too irksome, and could, on the whole, be fairly easily and enjoyably overcome. Some appropriate texts on the walls and singing round the piano helped to maintain morale.

After supper on Friday evening there was an hour's ringing at Christ Church, St. Leonards. Ringing on Saturday started at Hailsham, and continued at the three available Eastbourne towers—All Saints', Christ Church and St. Mary's. After this, the party disintegrated to some extent, and the interval before ringing on the very pleasant six at Pevensey was variously occupied by tea, bathing, waiting for buses or going to Westham by mistake. An enjoyable hour at Bexhill, after supper, back at the lodgings, completed the day's official programme.

On Sunday morning, those who had not arrived on Friday went to Christ Church, St. Leonards, for service ringing before joining the rest of the party at All Saints', Hastings. In the afternoon, St. Clement's, Hastings, was visited in order to try the steel bells there. The 'go' of the bells was not nearly so bad as we had been led to believe, but half-an-hour within earshot of this discordant collection of ironware was as much as even the most unmusical person could stand. Service ringing in the evening was at Rye—a charming town with a fine church.

Monday brought with it a cold, northerly wind, and the cyclists found the journey to Battle very hard work. Ringing at Battle was followed by another tiring journey to ring at Brightling before going on to Burwash for lunch and ringing on the bells of St. Bartholomew's. The next stop, Salehurst, will always be memorable for the fine ring of bells and the excellent tea at the 'New Eight Bells.' This was easily the best meal of the week-end. The grand eight at Hawkhurst were a fitting finale to the week-end's ringing, and we were interested to find that in the visitors' book there, the signature immediately preceding those of our party was 'Geoffrey Cantuar.'

Transport during the tour was by nearly every means in common use—car, motor-cycle, pedal-cycle, bus, train and Shanks's pony. This resulted in a delightful uncertainty about the exact composition of the party available for ringing at any given moment. As promised in the circular, details of the bus services were available from the organiser and the secretary, and the information supplied by these two officials agreed on several occasions. The Society thanks all those who helped to make the tour such a success, and particularly Peter Blackman for his organisation. D. N. L.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

Tonbridge District

A highly successful bye-meeting was held jointly at Seal and Seal Chart, near Sevenoaks, on June 2nd, about 50 ringers and friends being present. The service was held at the church of SS. Peter and Paul, Seal, and was conducted by the Rev. A. E. Miller, in the absence of the Vicar of Seal, the lesson and address being given by the Rural Dean of Sevenoaks, the Rev. A. S. Harryman.

At the business meeting the Rev. A. S. Harryman presided and three new members were elected, viz., Miss W. Thomas, Mr. H. King and Mr. A. Hughes, all of Seal. Tunbridge Wells was chosen for the annual district meeting in October in lieu of Tonbridge, where the bells are to be repaired.

Mr. E. H. Lewis, a vice-president of the Kent Association and president of the Central Council, was also present.

STORY OF A GREAT RINGING CAREER

DIARY OF THE LATE MR. W. H. FUSSELL—15

Edited by ERNEST MORRIS

RETURN TO LONDON

In October, 1886, Mr. Russell records: 'Arranged to begin business at Great Russell Street. On arriving at my apartments after unpacking and arranging matters, got to bed at 10 p.m. Although a Sunday, a good deal of noise was occasioned by traffic in streets close by which—after my quiet room at home where I have written my diary for so many months past—will take some time to get used to.' He at once began to visit many churches in the City and says: 'Saw many old friends who seemed pleased to hear of my being up again. The belfry of St. Clement Danes' has been repainted and whitewashed—not before being wanted. Met W. H. Judd and suggested peal by W. H.'s.' (In his diary is a long list of ringers with Christian names William H.)

ROYAL CUMBERLANDS REORGANISED

At this time he notes that: 'The new master, the early meet at St. Martin's, the more business-like style of carrying out the whole meeting, were objects of satisfaction to me as it was time that some change other than the old slipshod way of doing matters as formerly—a drawback to the Society removed in many ways. Also the brotherly good feeling between all the members now existing. Baron, Dains, Newson and Rogers hanging well together and all quite unanimous in their bearing to each other, instead of having anything unpleasant. We may expect to see something done this winter worth hearing.'

A 'TWO-SOCIETY' PEAL

A day or so later they met at St. Giles' (where F. Bennett was steepkeeper) for a peal with J. Smith, of Market Drayton, who was up in search of work. They rang 5,088 Kent Treble Bob Major, composed by Dains, conducted by Newson, in 2 hours 56 minutes. 'Very good and quick.' All were members of the Norwich Diocesan Association except Titchener so they made him one and booked the peal for that Association and the Royal Cumberlands as well. 'Newson and Dains had a lot to say about the composition while ringing.' He met Mr. G. H. Philott on one occasion 'at a sing-song' and heard him sing a local ringing song of Cheltenham. (The present writer had the pleasure of meeting and ringing with this gentleman, at Cheltenham, on several occasions.) Other artistes included Marriott, 'Shelling Green Peas,' and Newson. 'About the Cumberlands' 12,000 Oxford Treble Bob Royal at Shoreditch.' Stackwood also sang, making them laugh and roar with his quaint sayings and doings.

While at a Waterloo Society dinner, "Stack" and A. Hayward (a College Youth who is a good cricketer and engaged to play for clubs) arranged to play a single wicket with Newson as umpire, as Arthur had a lot to say about his abilities. This resulted in Hayward being bowled out second ball. Stack's innings also was soon over for the very first ball he sent out of bounds in one hit and not a sign of it could be found by anyone, much to Hayward's discomfort, and whenever they met Stack says the ball hasn't done going yet!

Mr. Fussell went to St. Mary's, Islington, for the first time and describes it as 'a large ringing room with several peal boards, bad ropes, good draught and circle. Went to their meeting house the other side of the churchyard called "The Mitre" where I found one of the best little rooms for a ringers' Society I ever saw—skylight in the centre of the ceiling, no windows and one door, cosy and comfortable. Here I stayed till 12.30, drinking and refreshing with the local gang who had a set of handbells out of tune and tone which were freely used during the evening. Much to the delight of the company, a visitor came in and stood pots of ale which were soon out of sight. There were five steepkeepers present: Loring, of St. Botolph's, Bishopsgate; Moore, of St. Bride's; Barry, of Vedast's, Foster Lane; Spicer, of Islington; Bennett, of St. Giles' Bloomsbury. Moore, Tingey (a big, stout man) Bennett and I walked home together.' Horton, now living at Battersea, tells me he keeps a diary, also a list similar to mine. He also told me about the diary the late Jas. Barham used to keep.

WHEN THINGS GO WRONG!

'At St. Martin's everything seemed right to go and ring a good peal.—Alas! the deceptiveness of all ringers. At 2 o'clock G. Harvey sends his boy to Newson with word that "he could not come to Southgate as he had knocked his leg." but rather than fail us, George Newson called on Chapman (out): H. Tyler (at a funeral); T. Gled (tipsy); Foskitt (must stay indoors, as his wife just confined); C. Deal (at work). He was compelled at last to come to Southgate one short, only to find two more were absent (pleasant!). However, Lewis, a cab proprietor, with cab stories kept us alive in good humour, with some difficulty, as our spirits were quite upset.'

TROUBLE WITH A FLAG POLE

'Jack Lewis, who is a Bath man, told me some of his ringing tales of that town which is a very loyal one and always on the Queen's birthday flag all the church towers. At one of these a long pole was raised and lowered inside the tower, vertically, by means of an old windlass. Jack was helping the sexton to lower it once when the old man's handle came off. Jack, being only a lad, could not hold the full weight of the pole by himself, so he let go and the heavy pole went down through each floor like a thunderbolt and smashed through the communion table of the church. Much ado was made about it and the steepkeeper much alarmed. Jack says the old windlass wheel "whissed round" for nearly half-an-hour after the pole had fallen.'

The next day Mr. Fussell went to St. Sepulchre's, Snow Hill, and says while ringing, Gifford, of Salisbury, came up and a lot of College Youths from St. Paul's—Hayes, Greenleaf, Joyce, French, who took part in a good touch of Caters. After finishing in time for service, 'a numerous meeting of ringing people grouped themselves at the corner opposite—Barry, Dains, Rumsey, Lovett, Taylor and others, besides those already mentioned.' For evening service at St. Clement Danes' they rang Triples and Caters and afterward a quarter peal of Grandsire Triples from Holt's Original on handbells by Fussell 1-2, Winney (conductor) 3-4, Gifford, of Salisbury, 5-6, McLaughlin 7-8; Banks and Goddard, witnesses.

During 1886 Fussell rang 14 peals (including 6,048 Kent Major and 5,104 Grandsire Cinques at St. Bride's, Fleet Street) and lost eight. He also rang 18 different 720's of Minor.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL

The half-yearly meeting of the Swindon Branch was held at Bishopstone on June 9th with an attendance slightly below the average. The Association form of service was conducted by the Vicar (Canon Hatherley Jones) and Mr. H. W. Bishop presided over the business meeting in the unavoidable absence of the branch chairman.

The secretary gave a report on the proceedings at the Central Council meeting at Chester, calling special attention to rules governing peal ringing. It was proposed that meetings be held at Wroughton (evening), Castle Eaton and South Marston during the next three months. Ringing ranged from Grandsire Triples to Double Norwich and Oxford Treble Bob

OBITUARY

MR. JAMES SWINDLEY

By the passing of Mr. James Swindley on May 28th, the Chester Diocesan Guild lost one of its foundation members and a familiar figure in local ringing circles. As captain of the Cathedral band and also of St. Mary's, Handbridge, he was well known to the many ringers who have visited the city. A native of Eccleston, he learned to ring there on the six at the old church which was demolished in 1899 to make way for the fine modern building which enriches the village to-day. In the early part of the century he moved to Handbridge and associated himself with the ringing at St. Mary's and later at the Cathedral.

To his great disappointment, his doctor advised him to give up ringing about a year ago but he hoped that this was only a temporary measure and looked forward to an early return to the belfry. During this time his ringers frequently visited him, especially after ringing, hearing his comments on the performance and discussing the latest events in the ringing world. These meetings did much to help him during this trying period.

'Jim' was a keen peal ringer. He had taken part in 249 peals in a great variety of methods and among his accomplishments was the record peal of 17,280 Kent Major at Over, Cheshire, in 1923, when he rang the sixth. He had also taken part in a number of ringing tours, a form of recreation which gave him much pleasure and satisfaction. Six-bell ringing had also an attraction for him and he had been a member of the band which, under the leadership of the late Mr. James Morgan, rang extents in all methods in the C.C. Collection.

He was one of Cheshire's foremost craftsmen in wrought ironwork and in this he followed his ancestors, who had carried on the craft through 300 years. Many examples of his work can be seen in churches, halls and mansions in all parts of the country. The account books, which cover almost two centuries, are interesting, not only as a record of work and places, but also for items concerning bells and ringing jotted in odd corners here and there.

For instance, it is noted that at the opening of the new ring at Eccleston in 1810 'Lord Grosvenor gave a sheep, and the wardens plenty of ale.' Another note records the fact that the same bells were rehung in 1895 at a cost of £5 15s.

It is, therefore, not only among the members of the Chester Guild, but in a much wider circle, that the passing of 'Jim,' ringer and craftsman, is lamented, and many assembled in the church to pay their last respects. Half-muffled bells sounded from the tower as he was carried in, and after the interment a quarter peal was rung on the bells which had held his interest for over half a century.

MR. JOHN GILSON

It is with regret we announce the death of Mr. John Gilson (70), a ringer at Erdington Parish Church, Birmingham, and a member of St. Martin's Guild for the past 16 years. He was ringing at Monday night's practice on May 28th, when he was taken ill. He managed to set his bell and was helped down the tower in a state of collapse and taken home by car. A doctor was fetched but Mr. Gilson never properly recovered and passed quietly away at 9 a.m. on May 29th.

The funeral service was at Erdington Parish Church on June 1st, prior to cremation. In the evening some muffled touches were rung to his memory. He was the mainstay of Sunday service ringing and his passing leaves a great gap in the Sunday band, for he could always be depended on and his place will take a long time to fill.

RINGERS' OUTINGS IN BRIEF

SOUTH-EAST SOMERSET

On May 26th a party of ringers from several towers in the S.E. corner of Somerset and a few from just over the Dorset border enjoyed a most successful afternoon outing at four towers west of Taunton.

This party was formed about three years ago with a view to encourage the use of more advanced methods. A practice meeting is arranged every fortnight throughout the year at one of the 14 towers within the ten mile radius and practice is confined to Stedman and Surprise Minor and Major methods. The results have been encouraging both in the ringing standard and the attendance at the practice which is almost always 100 per cent. The regular party consists of members drawn from Templecombe, Yeovil, Stalbridge, Yetminster, Queen Camel and Charlton Horrethorne.

The outing started from Preston, near Yeovil, and at the first stop, Rockwell Green, a delightful six were soon going to a fine touch of Cambridge Surprise, followed later with London and Beverley. At Wiveliscombe, another hour's ringing was enjoyed on the eight, which goes well. Another party from Chew Magna followed, who continued the ringing, while a splendid tea at Barrington's Cafe was enjoyed. Here the Vicar of Wiveliscombe (the Rev. V. A. C. Allen) expressed his welcome to all.

A short run followed, to Milverton, where Claude Tarr met the party. After a fine rise of the bells, the company settled down to a long touch of Stedman Triples followed by Double Norwich, Plain Bob and Cambridge Major. The last tower was Norton Fitzwarren, where two of the local ringers awaited the visitors. This heavier six possesses a fine mellow tone and were kept going until 9 p.m. to Stedman, Plain Bob, Cambridge and London.

The long run back to Preston ended a most enjoyable afternoon.

ST. MARGARET'S, LEICESTER

On June 2nd, St. Margaret's (Leicester) ringers, with friends from the Cathedral, St. John's, All Saints' and Loughborough, set off in good time in beautiful weather. Jean found a dog that took such a liking to her that it wanted to come with us and nearly got run over by two buses in the process. No other exciting incident occurred except the 'back of the bus party' causing Betty to lose her shoes.

Arriving at Stratford-on-Avon, the new ten bells were set going to Grandsire, Stedman Caters and Cambridge Royal. The bells here are grand, the conditions for ringing ideal and anyone who cannot ring when here could never ring anywhere.

After seeing the bridesmaids and bride arrive for a wedding, we set off for Tewkesbury Abbey, whose great and glorious tower was admired by all. The 12 bells were raised and good use made of them for an hour.

At Cheltenham several of the local company welcomed us and had the bells up ready. The 12 bells here go very well and were kept busy for an hour in several methods. Then off to Painswick for a final hour on this grand 12, which was thoroughly enjoyed. At each 12-bell tower, Cambridge Maximus, Stedman and Grandsire Cinques were rung. 'Ernest' was delighted to meet old Mr. Staite, of Painswick, who had stood by his side in 1919 to a peal of 6,335 Grandsire Cinques.

Tea was partaken of at the Falcon Hotel and Paul Taylor, not content with about six cups of tea, had one in his lap, thanks to Uncle Ernest.

A grand run home through the glorious countryside, with a brief stop at Worcester to view the Cathedral, etc., brought a happy outing to a close. Everything went according to plan and good time kept.

IN NORTH BEDFORDSHIRE

The five-bell festival this year was held on Whit Saturday in glorious weather—totally different from last year's festival held on St. Swithin's Day—and, as a result, the 28 people present had an enjoyable afternoon and evening visiting three interesting Bedfordshire churches.

Ringing began at Oakley where, in spite of the absence of a Sunday service band, the bells are kept in very good order by the verger, Mr. H. Stapleton.

At Stevington, a delightful village with grey-walled cottages and the possessor of a holy well and village cross, the bells were not very easy to handle and it was a great moment for the ladies when they succeeded in ringing a touch of Bob Doubles.

Mrs. Stalley, of the Red Lion, prepared a first-class tea.

Pavenham, the last tower of the day, had only four ropes, two of which were badly worn. Luckily, the organiser had been warned, and some spare ropes had been carried by the cyclists. On fitting the ropes it was found that they were not long enough to reach the ringing chamber, so, after some discussion, it was agreed to ring from an intermediate floor.

After half and hour's work, which included removing birds' nests from the bell frame, oiling the bearings and adjusting the ropes, the bells were declared open. The trap door to the belfry was missing, consequently the noise of the bells was terrific. The only way to spot the conductor of a touch was to look for the ringer with the reddest face. Methods rung here included Stedman and St. Simon's Doubles, and the bells were rung down in peal at half-past seven.

Visitors were present from Cambridge, Coventry, Hampstead, Linslade and Newmarket, and to these Bedfordshire ringers would like to say 'Come again next year.' M. S.

VETERANS OF LAST CENTURY

Mr. Tom Fowler, of Wilby, Northants, who is in his 82nd year, rang in a peal of Grandsire and Antelope Doubles at St. Mary's, Wilby, on Saturday, February 12th, 1898, and is, incidentally, the only survivor of the band.

Last December, following a fall, he became seriously ill and, by his doctor, was given not more than 48 hours to live. During that time his wife was taken ill and died, but, remarkably enough, 'Old Tom,' as he is affectionately known—recovered and is again a regular service ringer at St. Mary's.

Mr. F. P. Powell, of Southwold, Grahams-town, South Africa, who joined the College Youths in 1894, ten years later conducted the only peal as yet rung in Africa.

Mr. William Collison, of Tunbridge Wells, rang his first peal at St. John-the-Baptist, Crawley, Sussex, on July 5th, 1885. It was the first peal by a local band and the method was Grandsire Triples. The peal was rung for the first anniversary of the restoration of the church. Mr. Collison, now 87, is unable to get up to the belfry, but his interest in the art is undiminished and he still reads 'The Ringing World.'

ST. LAURENCE'S, READING

Thanks to George Fearn, 'Our Kid' and three or four well-known Birmingham ringers, the St. Laurence's ringers had another happy Whit Monday.

Leaving Reading at 6 a.m., the first call was at Kidderminster at 9.30, where Mr. Salter had everything ready. Here Stedman Cinques was rung. Then to Wolverhampton, where we had our greatest disappointment of the day, the eighth's clapper having broken on the previous evening when being rung for evensong. However, after refreshment, we set off for Walsall, where again we had some good Stedman Cinques.

Thanks to Mr. Eastwood, we had a splendid lunch, and then to Aston, where a good half course of Cambridge Maximus was successfully accomplished, as well as Stedman Cinques. At Birmingham Cathedral we had our only fiasco of the day; Stedman Cinques just wouldn't go on this lively 12.

The famous tower of St. Martin's followed and again we rang a good half course of Cambridge and quite good Cinques. Still quite fresh, we rang at St. Chad's and Bishop Ryder Churches, London and Cambridge Major and Stedman and Grandsire Triples.

We Reading people thank our Birmingham friends for the very happy day, and it again proves to the writer what a wonderful spirit abounds in the great ringing fraternity.
