WOMEN!

ONE presumes that the war of the sexes is never ending. Perhaps now that the fair sex have entered many of the walks of life that at one time were the exclusive right of the male the war is intensified. Be in the company of a few motorists and mention 'women drivers,' soon each is giving an opinion and rarely to the credit of those women drivers; be in the company of ringers and mention 'lady ringers,' the opinions are more circumspect, especially if members of the Ladies' Guild are present. Of course, there are some who look askance at a lady ringer, especially those of the old school; those of the younger school look on it in a different light. Is it a case of 'sour grapes' as far as the 'old school' is concerned? Still there are times when a lady makes a sign and you wonder whether she wants to dodge with you, or whether she wants to know if her nose is shiny, or perhaps pat her hair in place.

Such old stalwarts as Sam Wood, Ben Thorp and Harry Chapman had to put up with lady ringers towards the latter part of their careers whether they liked it or not—still Miss Tonge held her own with them and one more of the gang who is still alive. She found it hard going at first, but her ability made all the difference. One wonders what they would have said if those ladies had brought their knitting with them to while away the time when they were not ringing or if they saw in the belfry copies of 'Woman's Weekly,' 'Woman's Own,' etc., lying alongside 'The Ringing World,' or saw patterns of unmentionables tucked away inside 'Standard Methods.'

Even clergy are not immune from looking twice at lady ringers and some do not look with favour on them. About thirty years ago at Marple, on the occasion of a Chester Guild meeting, the then Vicar strongly objected to mixed bands ringing; he did not mind a complete ladies' band ringing, provided the men left the tower—needless to say, the ladies present, to use a modern term, fired a few 'rockets.'

Romance now finds its way into ringing circles and it behoves the men to watch out, for, whenever the time comes when the fair sex predominates, then you who have married one will have to stay at home on Sunday to do the chores whilst she goes to ring for morning service.

Ever attended a Ladies' Guild meeting? Is the stronger sex allowed in at the business meeting? Not on your life; the 'Iron Curtain' is up good and proper. Is the time coming when we shall have an 'all women' Central Council? One hopes not.

FORTY YEARS AGO

From 'The Ringing World' of May 9th, 1913

CHRIST CHURCH BELLS, BOSTON, U.S.A.

English Ringers Assist at the Reopening

Christ Church bells, being the first ring shipped from England, are well known in America by reason of their purity of tone, long vibration and carrying power, a characteristic of the Rudhall foundry at about the middle of the 18th century. . . .

Situated in a remote section of Boston, abandoned to Italians, Russian Jews and Portuguese, the edifice had been for many years neglected, while its bells had become unringable; [but] an extensive restoration has at length been effected.

Although it was found necessary to renew headstocks, wheels, stays and even clappers, the bells were in perfect order; and when quarter-turned and rehung, could be managed with the least appreciable effort. . . . The eve of April 19th, the anniversary of a holiday known in Massachusetts as Patriots' Day, was selected for the opening, and . . . the bells burst out in touches of Grandsire to the satisfaction of a heterogeneous multitude which thronged the adjacent streets. The bells, eight in number, with tenor of 15 cwt., were cast in 1744, and are now as perfect as when sent across the water from Bristol. . . .

A. H. Nichols, M.D.

[A quarter of Grandsire Doubles was rung shortly afterwards by P. J. Allfrey (Brighton) 1, Mrs. Shurtleff 2, S. W. Sturgis 3, W. Bashford (Nutfield, Surrey) 4, G. Moore (Maidstone) (conductor) 5, Dr. A. H. Nichols 6. Mrs. Shurtleff, daughter of Dr. Nichols, had taken part in two or three peals in London some ten years previously. She is the senior lady member of the Ancient Society of College Youths.]

The peal of Kent Treble Bob Minor at North Stoneham for the Queen's birthday was rung after losing one of Grandsire Triples due to a miscall. The inevitable coin decided that Cedric Murphy (aged 14) should stand down and allow Adrian Tumber to ring his second peal before his 13th birthday.

There was a very happy dinner at the Golden Pheasant, Plumley, on April 18th, when Messrs. H. Parker, H. W. Howard, H. Worrall and Cecil Raddon celebrated the ringing of their 50th peal together at Eccleston, Cheshire, on March 28th. The dinner was attended by their respective wives and two other friends. 'A good time was had by all,' writes our correspondent.

Ringers friends of the Henley-on-Thames tower will be sorry to hear that Mr. E. Nash is in Reading (Berks) Hospital and will join with us in wishing him a speedy recovery.

In the report of a quarter peal rung to the memory of Queen Mary on March 31st at Claverley (Salop) a wrong line was dropped in when making a correction. The 1.260 Grandsire Triples was rung by Mrs. J. Bennett 1, J. Marsh 2, W. Francis, jun., 3, G. Goodson 4, F. Hinton 5, C. Jones 6, E. Drew (conductor) 7, E. Bennett 8.

Mr. Geoffrey J. Hemming, in submitting a peal of Grandsire Triples on the back eight of Evesham's 12, specially commends the way Miss Brenda M. Smith rang the sixth, which is 33 lb. short of 19 cwt. Brenda, he assures us, enjoyed her peal and was quite excited about it.

In ringing the peal of Stedman Triples at Sevenoaks on April 17th as a wedding compliment to Miss H. M. Argyle, daughter of the Rector, the ringers would also like to say 'Happy Birthday' to Betty Mason, whose father rang the second.

Four Associations and Guilds are supporting the Thames Valley Ringing Festival on June 27th. Ringing will take place in all the towers along the River Thames from Windsor to Walton, with headquarters for tea and service at Egham. Arrangements are jointly being made by Mr. W. Simmonds and Mr. Ronald I. Shepherd.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lake, of Bourne (Lincs) was celebrated by a peal of Spliced Surprise Minor in 17 methods. Mr. Lake came to the church to start the peal and called 'Go London,' and the peal went without a hitch. For over 30 years Mr. Lake was Ringing Master at Bourne, retiring when the war started. He conducted many notable peals of Spliced Surprise Minor, including one in 28 methods in 1936. He has over 100 peals ranging from Doubles to Surprise Royal to his credit.

Mr. W. Rogers, of Rotherfield (Sussex), has recovered from his illness enough to start ringing again. On April 21st he rang his first peal for over a year and in calling from the third he 'completed the circle' in his home tower in a novel way—by conducting a different Surprise Major method from every bell.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. Frank V. Sinkins, of Slough, has now fully recovered from his recent fall, which resulted in a broken collarbone. He is now in his 89th year and is still a regular service ringer at Slough. On April 26th, at Hughenden, he was heard to remark, 'It is 73 years since I first rang in this tower.' What a grand old gentleman he is, to be sure!

Two regular Sunday service ringers at North Stoneham (Hants), Norman Hayes and Molly Denby, celebrated their engagement and Molly's birthday with a peal on April 25th. The band were entertained to tea after the peal at the home of Miss Denby with samples of her proficiency in the culinary art in the form of piles of small cakes and a huge iced one. A toast was proposed and simply but very sincerely answered, and the celebrating continued until late in the evening, with Mrs. Reed providing the musical accompaniment on the piano.

THE MINISTRY GOES WEST

Gilbert Thurlow Tells of the Clerical Guild in Cornwall

THIS does not mean the fall of the Government. Something more exciting, at least for those concerned. The Clerical Guild has been spending its annual ringing week in Cornwall. Determined to paint the county red, the Guild toured round in a motor coach inscribed 'Crimson Tours'—which title hardly seemed to imply the nature of its contents.

The party gathered on April 13th at Carbis Bay. You have to visit this delectable spot to realise how far it is from 'England.' The undersigned arranged to cover the first 120 miles late on Sunday night: arrived an hour late in Hitchen, where he had arranged to pick up a member. Finding nobody at the place of meeting, he and a fellow cleric invaded the police station at midnight, were discussing how to catch a stray cleric at that hour, when the said cleric walked into the station also, providing the constables on duty with a story on which they could put what interpretation they liked.

After hours and hours over plains, hills, valleys, moors, ravines, rivers, more moors, to the far west—Carbis Bay ringing chamber looked indeed bright and welcoming late on Monday evening. There were gathered the Rev. and Mrs. J. H. B. Andrews, the Revs. D. Ballard, W. G. Bridge, N. F. D. Coleridge, F. L. Edwards, K. W. H. Felstead, M. C. C. Melville, the Rev. and Mrs. I. J. Richards, the Rev. and Mrs. D. P. Roberts, the Revs. J. G. M. Scott, R. D. St. J. Smith, A. G. G. Thurlow, W. H. R. Trehwella, H. F. Warren, Canon R. F. Wilkinson and E. B. Wood. We were presided over, as is our usual great joy and privilege, by the cousins Cox, the Canon who is our president and the Prebendary who is our secretary. (This reminds one of the story of the rather ponderous clerical lecturer who had been lecturing a class of ten-year-olds at length on the constitutional set-up of Cathedrals and at the end said, 'Now boys, what is the difference between a Prebendary and a Canon?' to receive the reply, 'Please Sir, a Prebendary has two humps.') And, of course, there were those without whom life at Carbis Bay would be most sadly bereft—the Rev. A. S. and Mrs. Roberts, also Evangeline, now aged nine and ringing Grandshire Doubles.

Whilst the undersigned and his carload were crossing Cornwall the police phoned Carbis Bay saying that offertory boxes in the neighbourhood were being rifled. This had no connection with St. Andrew's, Norwich, bells fund.

Tuesday began with Holy Communion at Carbis Bay Church, celebrated by the president, assisted by the Vicar. After this some rang Double Norwich for an hour at Carbis Bay whilst others, choosing more wisely, visited the nice little six at Lelant, and thence to Camborne, where all met for Kent, etc., etc., and lunch (dry for the unenterprising). On to Redruth and then to Kenwyn, each of which has a fine eight. Then to Evensong at Truro Cathedral, sung by the congregation as the choir was on a well-deserved holiday. Here we met a school party from Beoley, Worcs, whose enterprising teacher runs tours for the children all over the British Isles. Robert Wilson from this party rang with us at the Cathedral, where Stedman Caters, Double Norwich Major, etc., were rung. The Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Wigg had meanwhile joined us. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Roberts most kindly gave us tea at Truro, at which the Bishop of Truro was guest of honour. Back to Hendra's Hotel, Carbis Bay, where we were staying.

TRIED TO HEDGE THE CUCKOO

On Wednesday some rang Stedman Triples at great speed for 50 minutes at Towednack, a church with an appearance of immense age, with two of the Cornish 'Preaching Crosses,' some of which are sixth century, in the churchyard, a mediæval granite altar slab and a church tower finished very low because the Devil wouldn't let them build any higher. This was the parish where they tried to hedge in the cuckoo, and they would have succeeded had the hedge been a bit higher! Others rang at the famous little church of Zennor, where you can see monuments to a family with father of 95, mother of 99 and daughter of 104, also to John Davey, the last to know the old Cornish language well. Our member, the Rev. W. H. R. Trehwella, was once incumbent here and installed the delightful six on which we rang. An ancestor of his, son of the Squire of Zennor, had a lovely voice which attracted a mermaid. She induced him to follow her beneath the sea, so he was heard no more, but she can still be seen carved on a bench end in the sanctuary at Zennor. This village takes its name from St. Senner. Western Cornwall is alive with memories of many saints of the earliest Christian Church in this land, and their Preaching Crosses are a thrilling feature of the landscape.

Thence to Madron, with one of the splendid Cornish chancel screens, mostly renewed, and a fine ring of eight. Lunch in a field with a grand view of the sea and St. Michael's Mount. Thence to Gulval—but on the way some members strayed from the programme to visit the mead works, where you can buy all sorts of mead, dry, sweet, etc., etc., also honey and spices, in an old-world atmosphere, albeit the affair only dates back ten years or so. At Gulval we enjoyed Surprise, etc., on a very nice little eight, also chimed the bell hung in the open air in the churchyard and had a service taken by the Vicar, who had kindly met us, as did the Vicars of Madron and Penzance, to which grand eight we now turned. After Stedman, etc., here we inspected the church, a featureless Georgian Gothic affair which in the hands of really artistic folk is being made a place of great and surprising beauty.

Then to Alverne Hill, with its charming gardens, where we were given a sumptuous tea by Miss Eileen Symons, who is president of the Truro Diocesan Guild, and her sister. Some of the party drove thence to Land's End passing the Merry Maidens, a circle of stones supposed to be a group of maidens who were thus punished for dancing on Sunday, but in fact something far more interesting, a relic of the culture of Cornwall centuries before Christianity. After gazing at the wild grandeur of Land's End, touches were rung on the light six at Sennen, England's most westerly tower.

A NEW HON. SECRETARY

The day ended with the annual meeting held at headquarters at Carbis Bay. At this Canon Carew Cox was unanimously re-elected president, and Canon Wilkinson vice-president. Prebendary E. V. Cox felt that owing to his many important Diocesan duties he must resign the office of hon. secretary. The president and others spoke in the warmest possible terms of the work Prebendary Cox had done in building up the Guild and in arranging the ringing weeks. It was unanimously agreed to make him a vice-president as soon as the constitution could be revised to permit having two vice-presidents. The Rev. J. H. B. Andrews was unanimously elected hon. secretary. It was agreed to hold the 1954 ringing week in the Monmouthshire area.

On Thursday, April 16th, we started at Crowan, then to the fine eight at Helston, a church rather like Penzance on a small scale both in design and in modern treatment. Posters were advertising the Furry Dance on May 8th. We found Cambridge, etc., more interesting. Then to one of Cornwall's finest churches,

St. Keverne, with splendid pillars of serpentine, etc., with one granite monolith and fine pew ends. A good ring of eight here, by Taylor's, with tenor of 18½ cwt. After lunch, to St. Anthony, a most charming little church close by the sea—or rather, a narrow arm of the Helford river, which is like a Norwegian fjord on a tiny scale, surrounded by steep hills: the little granite tower with trees and hills around and the sea in front makes a perfect picture. Then to Manaccan, above the head of the fjord, with a fine Norman doorway—rather rare in the district—and a large old fig tree growing out of the nave wall; a very nice little six here. Prebendary Cox celebrated his retirement from the secretaryship by giving us tea in a farmhouse which was extraordinarily difficult to find—deep admiration to the driver for this and other triumphs. After a splendid tea, to the nice six at Mawgan, where the memorial brass to Hannibal Bassar, 1708, is thus inscribed in Bob Minimus fashion:—

'Shall wee all dye
Wee shall dye all
All dye shall wee
Dye all wee shall'

It is comforting to feel that this, like all the problems of life and death, will come round if only pursued long enough. Then to Carbis Bay for our final evening.

On Friday, April 17th, we went our long, long way home, ringing at Phillach, St. Enoder and Lanivet, then crossing moors, rivers, ravines, more moors, valleys, hills, plains, back to Old England, but leaving a large portion of our hearts in the ancient land of saints, crosses, stone circles, granite, serpentine, royal hospitality—our hearts full of gratitude to so many people, clergy, tower captains, the coach driver, the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Roberts and most especially Prebendary Cox, who has made the Clerical Guild what it is.

Marriage of Mr. W. F. Butler and Miss A. A. Ewins

Two very popular young ringers of the East Berks and South Bucks Branch of the Oxford Diocesan Guild were married at Farnham Royal on April 18th. They were Mr. 'Bill' Butler, leader of the Clewer (Windsor) band, and Miss Audrey Ewins, of Slough. Both learned to ring since the war, and Mr. Butler has assumed the role of leading conductor in the area, whilst his bride, who learned to ring at Slough, has been for the past three years on the staff of Queen Mary's Children's Hospital at Carshalton, where she has recently successfully completed her training as a S.R.C.N. She had rung eight peals before going nursing and has rung a few since.

Almost 100 guests attended the wedding, the majority of whom were intimate ringing friends. Among the numerous presents was a set of table forks subscribed for by Slough bellringers and a few other ringing friends. As the couple left the church they walked beneath an arch of handbells while the tower bells rang overhead. The best man was Mr. W. Birmingham, of Slough, who taught the bride to ring, and in attendance was Mrs. E. Armstrong (formerly Miss Iris Ewins), a ringer at Farnham Royal, who herself had married a ringer.

After the reception a peal in honour of the event was attempted, but came to grief after 1½ hours' ringing through a miscall. The Vicar kindly consented to a further attempt on the following Monday, which also, unfortunately, failed through a conducting error.

The happy couple left by air for their honeymoon in Jersey, after which they will take up residence at 2, Faraday Road, Slough.

THE BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION

Annual Meeting at Bedford

THE two rings of bells in Bedford and that at Biddenham once again attracted a good company of ringers to the Bedfordshire Association's annual meeting on Easter Monday. Members were present from all parts of the county and visitors were welcomed from Middlesex, Huntingdonshire, Northamptonshire, Leicestershire, Derbyshire, Buckinghamshire and Surrey.

A full day's programme opened at ten o'clock with ringing on the magnificent ten bells (tenor 28½ cwt.) at St. Paul's, Bedford. Local ringers can often be accused of overrating the qualities of their own bells, so it was reassuring to have the honest opinions of visitors that the tone of these bells ranks very high. This knowledge makes more disappointing the fact that ringing is highly restricted owing to the presence of the Town Market immediately below the spire and the close proximity of a theatre, concert hall and local government offices. Easter Monday is the ringers' day, however, and all present made the most of the opportunity of ten-bell ringing. Mr. S. Foskett was Master, and methods rung on the ten included Stedman Caters, Cambridge Surprise Royal and Treble Ten; the back eight were rung to Double Norwich, Bristol Surprise and Spiced Surprise Major.

Meanwhile the Association's president, Miss E. Steel, was greeting the six-bell enthusiasts at her church at Biddenham, and methods rung on the six bells (tenor 12½ cwt.) ranged from Bob Doubles to York Surprise. The tower has for the past year been encased in scaffolding, but gradually the stonework is being given a new lease of life, and its clean appearance will be in keeping with the trimness of the churchyard and indeed with the character of the whole village.

FINANCES HEALTHY

A lunch at the Dujon Restaurant put all in a good frame of mind to tackle the agenda of the business meeting. The president took the chair and recalled that five members, namely, Mr. H. D. Harris, Mr. E. Herbert, Canon A. Rust, Mr. D. Thompson and Mr. H. Gayton, had been members of the Association for more than fifty years. The secretary, Mr. J. M. Stephens, then read the minutes of the previous annual meeting. The next item was the adoption of the statement of accounts for the previous year; this showed the finances were in a particularly healthy state and that, provided the membership figures remained steady, there would be no need to consider increasing the annual subscription of two shillings.

The committee's report stated that the total of performing members was 244, including 14 under the age of sixteen years. While this figure was similar to the previous year's total, it was encouraging to note an increasing interest was being taken by the clergy and churchwardens, and as a result the society had more honorary members. Peals rung during 1952 showed a decrease of six on the previous year's total, but the 27 rung were of great variety with the conducting shared by no less than 17 ringers. Members ringing their first peal totalled nine.

In the election of officers all were re-elected as follows: President, Miss E. Steel; vice-presidents, Messrs. A. King, E. Herbert, A. E. Sharman, H. D. Harris, C. J. Ball, L. H. Bywaters and P. Inskip; secretary and treasurer, Mr. J. M. Stephens; auditor, Mr. G. H. Mason; librarian, Mr. S. Foskett; assistant librarian, Mr. D. Thompson.

It was unanimously agreed that the annual meeting next year should again be held at Bedford, and the proposal of holding the summer festival meeting at Maulden on June 27th met similar approval. Miss P. Wright, of Cardington, was elected a performing member, and Messrs. C. Woolley, G. Seaman and W. Wenban were elected non-resident members.

MAJORITY FAVOUR DINNER

The suggestion of an Association dinner was the next item on the agenda, and this provoked much discussion. After the president had allowed many opinions to be voiced, the proposal of holding a dinner in Bedford during the autumn was put to the meeting and carried by a large majority. The secretary was instructed to make inquiries on the matter and report at the summer festival meeting. There being no other business, Mr. H. D. Harris proposed a vote of thanks to the president for taking the chair and the meeting then closed.

Members returned to St. Paul's and St. Peter's Churches for further ringing. At the latter tower Mr. W. Stapleton was in charge and the ringing included all the standard Major and Triples methods. Perhaps the most noticeable addition to the furniture of the ringing chamber here is the new timepiece given by Miss E. K. Knight as a farewell gift to her tower. Miss Knight, a ringer at St. Peter's for 33 years, has now left Bedford for South Africa, and her gift will be of great value to both service and peal ringers alike.

After an hour's break for tea ringing was again resumed at St. Paul's, and when eventually the back eight were rung down in peal at 8.45 p.m. it was generally agreed that in spite of inclement weather the ringing fraternity had enjoyed their Easter Holiday.

MR. JOHN FOWLER'S 25 YEARS AS RINGING MASTER

MR. JOHN FOWLER, for 25 years Ringing Master of the East Berks and South Bucks Branch of the Oxford Diocesan Guild, retired at the annual meeting held at Hughenden on April 25th.

Collections were made in the towers of the branch in appreciation of Mr. Fowler's long and loyal service, and on Saturday he received his presentation from the Bishop of Buckingham (the Rt. Rev. Robert Hay).

In his last annual report Mr. Fowler said that most of the 11 branch meetings of the year had been fairly well attended, although the numbers present represented a small percentage of the membership of the branch, the largest in the Guild. On the whole, ringing had been quite good and some useful instruction had been given.

Mr. Fowler continued: 'I am now turned 65 and this is my 25th and last report. . . I do hope you will give my successor that same loyal support that I have received.'

During his term of office he had missed only nine meetings. He had seen many changes in the branch—there were three more rings of eight—at Stoke Poges, Bray and Cookham—and a very useful ring of 10, the only one in the branch, at Slough.

Quite a lot of restoration work had been carried out. The bells at Burnham and Hughenden, two fine light eights, had been recast and rehung on ball bearings and new frames. Mr. George Gilbert and Mr. Roland Biggs had every reason to be proud of their efforts.

Mr. Fowler paid tribute to the work of Mr. A. D. Barker, 'an indefatigable secretary and treasurer,' who had faithfully served the branch and was entering his 30th year of office.

The day he had taken over the affairs of the branch things were in a very bad way financially. By hard work and enthusiasm he had put the branch on a sound footing and it had remained there ever since. It was the most lively in the Guild.

Mr. Fowler had a word of advice, especially for the younger ringers. He had noticed, particularly in recent years, a tendency among many ringers to look upon the art only as a

AN EASTER SUNDAY 'GRAB'

On Easter Monday a party of about twenty ringers from towers as far apart as Pakefield, Surfleet and Warwick gathered in East Leicestershire for what is fast becoming a traditional Bank Holiday 'Grab.' A varied assortment of vehicles may have been seen wending their way towards Ilston-on-the-Hill, where a pleasant half-hour was spent on the six bells before continuing to King's Norton, which, though not famous for a long length of London, has a fine old eight by Eayres—now very rough-going.

The ringers at Billesdon, though they had not been told of the visit, made the party very welcome and good ringing was accomplished. Somerby bells, augmented to six in 1950, were most enjoyable and the tower is one of the comparatively few where ringing is done from the middle of the church. Twyford gave a wet welcome but the musical six compensated for the dampness. The period allocated to the eight at Ashby Folville was all too short for these fine bells.

Then the Doubles merchants came into their own for three towers—Great Dalby, Kirby Bel-lars and Hoby, the respective specialities being All Saints', Stedman and St. Martin's.

By way of contrast and to satisfy catholic taste, the final tower of the day—one might say the 'Grand Finale'—was Melton Mowbray. Full use was made of the bells even though ringing was weakened by early departures. 'Stay-benders' and 'experts' alike were in agreement that the day had been well spent.

hobby. Bell ringing was very fascinating, but they had to remember that it was first and foremost to the service of God and His Church.

'Make every effort to attend as often as possible for service ringing and for your local practice; be in good time; don't keep the others waiting; handle your bell well and you will strike her well; let your service ringing be the best possible,' urged Mr. Fowler.

Mr. Barker reported that the branch had just under 300 members. Fifteen new members were elected.

Special prayers were offered by the chairman (the Rev. E. S. C. Lowman) for Mr. George Martin, the well-known ringer from Boyne Hill, Maidenhead, who was seriously ill in hospital.

Mr. Roland Biggs, of Hughenden, former Deputy Master, was elected Master in place of Mr. Fowler. Mr. Don Boreham becomes deputy. Mr. Barker was re-elected secretary and treasurer, and the Rev. E. S. C. Lowman, Vicar of Bray, will again be chairman.

The branch service at Hughenden Parish Church was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. S. A. C. Dickins). The Bishop of Buckingham was in the congregation. Mr. Fowler read the lesson.

After tea and some enjoyable ringing, the meeting moved on to High Wycombe and the twelve-bell tower.

SURREY ASSOCIATION

North-Western District

The Easter Monday meeting of the North-Western District at Kingston-on-Thames proved very popular. The Esher bells were open previous to the Kingston bells and a good number of ringers assembled here for an hour's ringing.

After the afternoon ringing a tea was served in the Church Hall, followed by the meeting with Mr. F. E. Collins, District Master, in the chair. Fifty-one ringers representing ten towers were present. Four new members were elected and Ashted was confirmed for place of next meeting. The sum of £1 8s. 3d. was collected for the General Bell Fund. R. L.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

ST. BRIDE'S, FLEET STREET

Dear Sir,—With reference to the letters on this subject from Messrs. P. I. Chapman and J. E. Spice, I wrote to the Bishop of London on behalf of the Central Council protesting against the proposed installation of an electronic device at St. Bride's.

The reply, given below, was not what I had hoped for, but at this stage no further action seems possible.—Yours faithfully,

Crayford, Kent.

E. A. BARNETT.

The Bishop of London wrote as follows:—
Fulham Palace.

'I think you are labouring under a complete misapprehension as to the intentions of the Vicar and churchwardens at St. Bride's. So far as I am aware there is no proposal not to restore the ring of bells. The carillon they have been offered would be for either complementary or supplementary use.—Yours sincerely,

WILLIAM LONDON.'

QUEEN'S, ETC., HALF-MUFFLED

Dear Sir,—In recent issues there have been published several short touches of Grandsire Triples containing Queen's, Tittums and Whittington's changes. Nearly all these occur at backstroke, and when the ringing is half-muffled the desired musical qualities are lost.

The following touches contain all these musical changes at handstroke, and are, therefore, very suitable for half-muffled ringing.—
Yours faithfully,

RAYMOND OVERY.

Haywards Heath.

LOCAL PEALS BY CHURCH OFFICERS

Dear Sir.—While congratulating Mr. Nobles and his fellow-ringers at Dallington on their peal, I am afraid he is too late to claim it as the first rung by a local band holding other church offices. The following is an extract from a letter which appeared in 'The Ringing World' of March 8th, 1912, concerning a peal of Erin Triples rung by eight Crayford ringers in October, 1911:—

'The members of this band are also church workers in other ways, as will be seen by the following:—Treble, W. Fletcher (assistant organ blower); 2nd, R. Brough (chorister and Sunday School teacher); 3rd, G. Povey (chorister); 4th, E. Audsley (chorister); 5th, P. E. Bex (sidesman); 6th, E. Barnett, jun. (chorister); 7th, E. Barnett, sen. (parish clerk and sexton); tenor, W. Floyd (chorister). . . . Yours sincerely, R. Brough.—Yours faithfully,

Crayford, Kent.

E. A. BARNETT.

WOODBIDGE, SUFFOLK

Dear Sir,—There are surely many ringers who in the past have had the pleasure and satisfaction of ringing on the fine ring of eight at the Parish Church of St. Mary, Woodbridge, Suffolk. This ring, founded by Thos. Osborne, of Downham Market, in 1799, is regarded as one of the finest rings in the county, with the tenor weighing 25½ cwt.

Unfortunately, this fine ring has been silent for a considerable time owing to the development of a crack in the seventh, and after an examination by an authority the fourth was also found to be cracked. The Church Council decided it would be very appropriate to have these two bells recast in time for the bells to be heard on Coronation Day and the two bells are at present at the Croydon Foundry. The approximate cost will be £300. The fabric finances of the church are at a very low level as recently the masonry of the tower, repairs to roof, etc., have meant heavy expenses. An appeal is now made to meet this added liability.

If any ringer would care to help, any donations large or small, will be gratefully received and acknowledged by the Rector, Canon A. W. Sarson, The Rectory, Woodbridge, Suffolk.—Yours, etc.,

A. STANLEY WOODARD,
Captain of Ringers.

PEAL WITHDRAWN

Dear Sir,—I wish to withdraw the peal of Chesterfield Surprise Major rung at West Hallam, Derbyshire, on January 19th, 1952, conducted by myself, as I have found the composition by Mr. G. Freebrey, published in 'The Ringing World,' March 14th, 1952, to be false.

This was the first time the method had been rung to a peal and I wish to express my apologies to the rest of the band and to the Records Committee.—Yours sincerely,

DENIS R. CARLISLE.

Risley, Derby.

THANKS TO THE DEAN OF CHESTER

Dear Sir,—The band who rang the peal at Chester Cathedral on Saturday, April 11th, 1953, would like to express their thanks, through 'The Ringing World,' to the Dean of Chester for granting permission to ring without any restrictions on the composition of the band, also for getting the towerkeeper, Mr. F. Fox, to carry out the minor repair to the tenor bell at very short notice after the head ringer, Mr. P. Swindley, had cancelled the peal attempt 24 hours previously without the Dean's knowledge or instruction.—Yours faithfully,

JOHN E. BIBBY.

Frodsham, Cheshire.

BATH AND WELLS ASSOCIATION

Taunton Branch

The first quarterly meeting for 1953 was held at Rockwell Green on April 18th. The Guild service was conducted by the Rev. E. Easter, and tea was afterwards served in the Church Hall, some 42 members being present.

At the business meeting it was agreed that the next quarterly would be held at Wellington on July 11th, and the next two monthly practices at Creech (St. Michael's) and Ashbrittle respectively.

The secretary gave a report of the Association's annual meeting held at Bath recently.

Returning to the tower, good use was made of the easy going six in a wide variety of methods up to Cambridge.

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY GUILD

The annual general meeting of the Cambridge University Guild was held on April 15th and the following new officers were elected:—

Master, F. E. Roberts, Selwyn College.

Secretary, J. H. Fielden, St. Catharine's College.

THE SCOTTISH ASSOCIATION

Coming of Age Meeting at Glasgow

The 2st annual meeting of the Scottish Association was held at St. Mary's Cathedral, Glasgow, on April 11th. The fine ring of ten of 32 cwt. was available both before and after the business meeting and the bells were rung to rounds, Grandsire, Stedman, Treble Ten and Cambridge Major. An all ladies band rang a course of Grandsire Triples, and those who were at first unwilling to stand in had to admit that the bells were much easier to handle than they could ever have anticipated.

The Provost, the Very Rev. M. P. G. Leonard, D.S.O., M.C., conducted the Association service and also gave the address. He welcomed the ringers to the Cathedral and said that so far as he was concerned they were always welcome, but he was sorry that not all those who lived round about the Cathedral shared his interest in hearing the bells rung.

The president of the Association, Mr. W. H. Pickett, took the chair at the business meeting, which turned out to be one of the shortest in recent years, as everyone was anxious to get back to the tower.

The Master, Mr. C. R. Raine, reviewed the ringing activities of the past year, which had included three peals. This was an increase on the previous year, but there had been a reduction in the number of quarter peals rung.

Mention was also made of the new ring of eight at Dunblane, which had been opened during the year, and the rehanging within the last few weeks of the bells of St. James', Leith.

Six non-resident life members had their election confirmed by the meeting and six new members were admitted from St. Andrew's, Glasgow, and Edinburgh. The present office bearers were re-elected. It was decided to hold meetings for the ensuing year at Dunblane (October), Alloa (February) and St. Mary's Cathedral, Edinburgh (April).

The president, in answer to a question from the meeting, gave a report of the arrangements which had so far been made about ringing for the Coronation. He remarked on the drop in the number of quarter peals which had been rung during the past year and expressed the hope that the individual towers might join forces more often so as to be able to make more frequent attempts in future. In conclusion he thanked the ladies of St. Mary's for all the work and trouble they had taken in providing the excellent tea which had preceded the business meeting.

Ringers were present from five of the seven towers at present represented in the Association.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

Bicester Branch Report Progress

The annual meeting of the Bicester Deanery Branch was held at Kirtlington on April 25th. The eight bells of the Parish Church were rung from 2.45 to 4 p.m. and from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Methods rung ranged from Grandsire Doubles, Plain Bob and Cambridge Minor, Stedman and Grandsire Triples to Plain Bob and Kent Major.

The branch service was conducted by the Rev. L. A. Gutch, with Mr. L. Pearman as organist. At 5 p.m. tea was served by Mrs. Kirtlington and her helpers and this was much appreciated.

The Rev. L. A. Gutch presided at the business meeting, supported by the hon. secretary (Mr. C. H. Kinch), when the following officers were elected: President, the Rev. C. Cowland Cooper; vice-presidents, the High Hugh Benson and Mr. F. Sharpe; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. C. H. Kinch; representatives to the Guild Committee, Mr. W. Baggett and Mr. H. Hatfield. Mr. L. Bloxham was elected a member of the Guild.

The next meeting was arranged to be held at Piddington on June 27th. The secretary reported that progress was being made in the branch. The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to all who had made the gathering such a success.

AFTER THIRTY YEARS Anniversary Peal Gathering at Stoney Stanton

On April 28th, 1923, the long peal of 12,896 Cambridge Surprise Major was rung at Stoney Stanton, Leicestershire. On Saturday, April 25th, the seven surviving members of the band and the one remaining umpire met again at the village to celebrate the anniversary.

After greeting old friends a move was made to the belfry for an attempt for a peal of Cambridge Surprise. Six of the ringers took the same bell that they rang in the long peal, whilst Mrs. H. J. Poole took the place of the late Tom Chapman, and John Thompson, a pupil of the latter, deputised on the tenor for F. H. Dexter, who umpired the attempt together with Tom Vallance (pen name A Flat!). The attempt came to grief after an hour and 35 minutes' ringing.

It not being time for refreshments, touches in several methods were rung and a move was made to lower the bells when someone had a brain-wave, 'Why not have tea and ring the peal afterwards?' Word was sent to the caterers to hurry along the meal whilst more ringing was indulged in.

On arriving at the hostelry an excellent repast was waiting, to which full justice was done. The Sergeant Major, as usual, was in brilliant form and kept the party highly amused with his anecdotes. Those who know him can imagine the scene, whilst those who do not know him little guess what they have missed!

The ringers again adjourned to the belfry whilst the 'umpires' stayed in the local. For the second attempt the band was reshuffled and the tempo of the ringing increased and the peal ran into rounds in 2 hours 40 minutes.

It is perhaps rather remarkable that after 30 years eight of those connected with the long peal are still with us, and Mrs. Poole also was present in the church during the whole of the time the peal was being rung.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD Dorchester Branch at Maiden Newton

The ancient Church of St. Mary, at Maiden Newton, surrounded by a churchyard crowded with waving daffodils, made an ideal setting for the spring meeting of the Dorchester Branch on April 11th.

The well-kept light ring of six bells was available from 2.30 p.m. until 4.15, when the Guild service was conducted by the Rector (Canon D. F. Slemek), who also welcomed the Guild. Mr. A. Squires was the organist, and Canon A. Wilkinson Markby read the lesson.

Tea was served in the school by the ladies connected with the church and was followed by the business meeting, conducted by the chairman (Canon A. W. Markby). The hon. secretary (Mr. J. H. Hayne) read a message from the Rev. F. L. Edwards, of Kingston Magna, to the effect that the Blandford ringing festival would take place on July 4th. The secretary had received an apology for absence from Mr. Paul Field, Deputy Ringing Master, and also a card from Frampton, stating that their bells were available. One new ringing member was elected, Mr. T. Webb, of Abbotsbury. It was agreed to hold the next meeting at Charminster in June. Notice was given of the annual Guild Festival, to be held this year at Calne on May 9th, and the assistant hon. secretary (Mr. R. H. Duke) was asked to make the necessary arrangements regarding transport.

The question of the six bells of West Lulworth was raised, and it was stated that the tower had been rebuilt, to the exclusion of the bell chamber, and the bells sold.

A vote of thanks to the ladies for the splendid tea, to the organist for his services and, above all, to Canon Slemek for his beautiful service and kind welcome was proposed by the chairman and carried with acclamation.

CUMBERLAND AND NORTH WESTMORLAND ASSOCIATION

Ringers from Keswick, Carlisle, Egremont, St. Bees, Hensingham and Workington attended the annual meeting of the Cumberland and North Westmorland Association at Egremont on Easter Monday. Also present were members of the Furness Branch of the Lancashire Association. Ringing from rounds to Stedman Triples and a plain course of Double Norwich was much enjoyed on the bells of the Parish Church.

The service before tea was conducted by the retiring president, the Rev. I. M. German. The inner man was completely filled for the business meeting with the Rector in the chair. Both the general secretary and the ringing secretary reported a very quiet year, and even the treasurer reported no expenditure and a credit balance of £29.

Officers elected were: President, the Rev. J. Davidson, Carlisle; general secretary, J. W. Brownrigg, Keswick; ringing secretary, S. Richardson, Hensingham; treasurer, S. Grisdale, Keswick. The committee was re-elected with the addition of J. Mossop, Workington, in place of Canon C. E. Last, St. Bees, who is leaving the district.

The Workington ringers were congratulated on the progress they had made, having started from scratch just over twelve months ago, and were now ringing quarter peals. The ringers of St. Bees were also praised in saving their church expense by lowering their own bells ready for transport to the Croydon Bell Foundry. The bells are expected back fairly soon. The meeting voted the sum of £5 to the Bell Repair Fund of St. Bees.

The meeting urged the need for 'The Ringing World' to continue to press the B.B.C. for a longer spell of broadcasting of bells.

SWANSEA AND BRECON GUILD

The quarterly meeting of the Northern Section was held at Llanfeigan on April 11th to coincide with the induction of the Rev. H. M. Hughes by the Bishop of Swansea and Brecon to the living of Llanfeigan and Llanddedy.

Llanfeigan Church has no heating or lighting and services are only held here during the summer months. The bells, a Taylor eight with modern fittings and frame, have no ropes. The bells were rung before and after the service at the request of the villagers of Pencelly, which is about one mile away, and ropes for the occasion were brought from Talgarth Church. About 20 ringers attended.

A meeting was held in the church with Mr. J. A. Hoare, general secretary of the Guild, in the chair. Llanfaes was selected for the next meeting. Members afterwards left by car and bus for Talybont for a grand tea.

The visit of the Guild has been more than appreciated. A prominent person is prepared to meet the cost of a new set of ropes, and some young men in the village have expressed a willingness to learn. This church is ideally situated for peals and there is a good approach road right up to the church.

HALIFAX AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION

The contests of the Halifax and District Association held at Mirfield Parish Church on April 11th resulted as follows:—

Fricland, 72 faults: Meltham, rang out; Liversedge, 74 faults: Huddersfield, 80 faults; Shelley, 90 faults: Lindley, 129 faults.

The judges, Mr. Robinson and Mr. Smith, of Mirfield, therefore declared Fricland the winners of the Association's Silver Cup.

At the commencement of the quarterly meeting, held after the competition, the president, Mr. Edward Earnshaw, called upon all members to stand in silence for one minute in remembrance of Mr. Joseph Broadley, of Bradford, for many years a judge at these contests, who had died since the last meeting.

GUILD of DEVONSHIRE RINGERS South-West Branch

Miss Marie R. Cross, of Berkshire, and friends from a wide area supported the quarterly meeting held at Lifton on April 11th.

During the afternoon and evening full use was made of the grand ring of eight bells. Rounds and courses and touches of Grandsire, Stedman, Plain Bob and Kent were rung, a pleasing feature being the high standard of striking maintained.

The Rector, the Rev. H. T. Boulton, left his sick-room to conduct a short service, and in the course of his address considered the ringing for service on Sundays a most important part of the service itself. For that reason he would very much like to hear more of the bells when they are rung before services broadcast by the B.B.C. 'Surely three minutes would not be asking too much.' The Rector said he did not know whether the ringers had made representations at any time to the authorities, but he would urge them to get together and press for the bells to be rung for three minutes on all occasions when they are rung before a broadcast service.

A collection for branch funds, amounting to 18s. 2d., was taken at the service.

At 5 p.m. Mrs. Boulton (wife of the Rector), ably assisted by a number of wives of the local ringers served a sumptuous tea in the School.

The business meeting was presided over by Mr. H. Howard Thomas (branch chairman), supported by Messrs. G. H. Myers and F. C. Smale (vice-presidents of the Guild), and members and friends numbering 40. All present stood in silent tribute to the memory of Mrs. Cox (wife of Preb. E. V. Cox, president of the Guild), who passed away recently.

Arising from the minutes, the secretary read a letter from the Rev. B. T. Guy explaining why it was not possible for the branch to have its meetings in Tavistock. The action taken by the secretary in arranging Lifton as the alternative was heartily approved.

The Guild certificate of proficiency was presented to Mr. F. E. Day, of Emmanuel, Plymouth. Two new members were elected, viz.: Instructor Commander R. Gordon Cross, R.N. (now resident at Tavistock), and Mr. W. Manning, of Lifton.

The Ringing Master reported he had received only one request for his services as conductor of a peal attempt for the Coronation, and that was from the Truro Diocesan Guild. It was obvious the branch was not enthusiastic about the suggestion he made at the annual meeting in December last, i.e., 'that during Coronation week, if possible, peal attempts be made in each of the towers in union with the branch.' However, he expressed a hope that all towers would endeavour to ring their bells for this historic event, and intimated that every effort would be made to attempt a peal at St. Andrew's, Plymouth, on Coronation Day.

The chairman proposed a sincere vote of thanks to the Rector and ringers of Lifton for all they had done to ensure the success of the meeting, and this was carried with acclamation.

OBITUARY

MR. W. W. WARWICK

It is with regret we record the death of Mr. Walter William (Bob) Warwick, of East Ilsley, Berks, who died on his 79th birthday, on April 24th.

Bob, as he was always known, started ringing at East Ilsley at the age of 15 years and was never late and always there whenever wanted, until a few years ago when his age and eyesight prevented him from ringing.

Mr. Warwick, in his younger days, walked many miles to attend branch meetings but the day he always enjoyed best was the annual outing; he never missed one.

The funeral took place on Tuesday, April 28th, at St. Mary's Church. Amongst the many floral tributes was one from the East Ilsley ringers.

In the evening a half-muffled quarter peal of Grandsire Triples was rung by V. J. Roussel 1, Miss June East 2, Mrs. C. J. Hibbert 3, Miss Joan White 4, E. T. Sneller 5, M. Rosier 6, C. J. Hibbert (conductor) 7, R. Wells 8.

MR. W. H. T. KING

It is with regret we record the passing of Mr. W. H. T. King, of 1, Firfield Avenue, Breaston, Derbyshire, on April 15th.

Mr. King was an enthusiastic ringer who travelled widely in pursuit of his hobby and was well known to the ringing fraternity of the North Midlands area.

Following interment at Breaston on Saturday, April 18th, a touch of Plain Bob Minor was rung on half-muffled bells by a combined band from Breaston, Sawley and Long Eaton.
