CONTESTS, OLD AND NEW

'RECENTLY,' said the Professor, 'I have had occasion to wade through Hoyle's "History of Barnsley." I think "wade" is the correct term. The task occupied several weeks and involved many visits to the public library. There are several references to bellringing in this massive tome, three of which allude to contests.'

'Indeed,' I said politely. Although contests are events upon which I consider myself an expert, I allowed him to continue in the hope that he would have something of moment to offer.

'In days gone by contests were contests,' he continued, 'and the case of one held at Darton, near Barnsley, in 1837, in which 12 sets of ringers took part, is typical of the era. Each team had to ring three 720's and the ringing, as was customary, extended overnight. We are informed that [consulting his notes]: "Much inconvenience was felt by the village not affording sufficient accommodation for the immense assemblage of people, many of whom had travelled a long distance. The inns were filled the whole of the night on account of the great number who could not procure beds."

'Wath, who in 1826 had challenged all England for a stake of £30 and had been defeated by Darton, could only manage to come third in this contest.

'Similar contests,' he went on, 'took place at intervals, and each one mentioned by Hoyle is described as a "Famous" contest, as, indeed it could well have been. One can imagine that when there was little else to capture the public imagination a contest such as the one held at Barnsley St. Mary's in 1842 would create quite a stir. Fifteen teams took part, each of which was required to ring "Three True Treble Peals," and although one or two "rang out" they must have consumed the best part of two days, especially as "The Barnsley team welcomed their brother ringers by three peals"!

'No half-measures there,' I observed. 'But were these all prize contests?'

'Yes indeed. In the last-mentioned contest there were four prizes of £6, £4, £2 and £1 respectively, representing in those days a tidy sum; in addition, ten shillings were given to each of the teams Mirfield and Meltham "who had come the furthest distance".'

'Was prize-ringing peculiar to Yorkshire?'

'Certainly not. In "Church Bells," 1881, a contest is reported at Drewsteignton in Devon in which there was "a wasteful expenditure of ten pounds" for prizes, the contest itself being attacked as a "prostitution of the goods of the Church." In the "Bell News" also an acrimonious correspondence developed concerning a prize contest at Credi-ton which, if I may so express myself, reflected Little Credenon either side!'

I snorted. His jokes are usually feeble; this one, I considered, was positively senile. He, however, was unperturbed.

'The local parson and an anonymous "Devonshire Clergyman," plus Charles D. P. Davies and several others, took part. The Devonians rang what is rather sarcastically described with editorial eloquence as "Ups and Downs, Rounds and Rounds".'

'As a boy,' I remarked, 'my grandfather took me to Belle Vue at Manchester to hear the handbell contests. There were, of course, tune-ringing contests in which Crossland Moor, I remember, on one occasion carried away the prize. I don't suppose there are any records of handbell change-ringing contests?'

'On the contrary, there are many. The Liversedge company, for example, in the '80's won many contests on handbells, both for change- and tune-ringing, whilst they were also able, from the same band, to have a team of men to ring changes on eight bells in the tower.

'Are you in agreement with prize-ringing on church bells, or do you consider it a sacrilegious act?'

'It may have been during the past, especially when over-keen competition led to rather doubtful practices, but contests nowadays are pretty innocuous. A biscuit barrel or a fruit bowl for each member of the winning team makes the contest more interesting, and the article can have pride of place on a sideboard as a reminder of the day the cup or shield was won.'

'Do you think that contest ringing is beneficial to the Exercise?'

'Unquestionably. It gets ringers together (which is always a good thing) in greater numbers than monthly meetings, and I think there is little doubt that it tends to develop better striking. Mr. C. D. Potter, that G.O.M. of the Barnsley Society, maintained that the general standard of striking improved after the introduction of contest ringing into the Society in 1926, and this opinion was endorsed by the late J. R. Brearley who judged many contests.

'What about those ringers who are not actually taking part in the contest, the young and immature and the more advanced who are not in any team; might they not object on the grounds that they are being robbed of a certain amount of ringing?'

I don't think so. The older ones enjoy listening, criticising and assessing the ringing; the younger ones learn by listening, both to the ringing and the social intercourse, anecdotes and reminiscences of the older ringers. I've never heard complaints on that score. In any case, most contests nowadays are timed to be over round about tea time or just afterwards, giving opportunity for a ring after the business meeting.'

'Are you satisfied with the system of judging the contest—the fault-finding equipment?'

'Not entirely. It seems to be the best method of assessment yet devised; its very simplicity is a good thing—but I am not sure that it is entirely foolproof.'

'Neither am I: but can you suggest a better?'

'No. I understand though that there has been a reversal of the system devised in the Notts-Derby area, and that whereas hitherto the team with the least number of faults has won the contest with the new set-up each team starts with a set number of marks—say 200 or 300—and marks are deducted for each faulty blow or change, so that the team wins who at the end has the highest number of marks. Moreover, the system includes, I understand, bonus marks for method difficulty, e.g., teams ringing "Delight" methods receive 10 or 20 marks, and teams aspiring to "Surprise" 30 or 40 marks!'

'Sounds interesting.'

'Very!' said the Professor.

DEDICATION

ST. KATHERINE'S, MERSTHAM

Sunday, January 31st, was an exceptionally fine winter's day, and a number of ringers and friends took advantage of the good weather to attend the dedication service in St. Katherine's, Merstham. Now augmented to eight, the bells will give added strength to the Southern District of the Surrey Association both by their presence and by the addition to the Association of new ringers who will learn there.

Before the turn of the century there were five bells with a tenor reputed to be 14 cwt., then a new treble bell was added to make the ring to six. Up till last year they have remained so. Even in the old days they were noted for their hard going, and it was not surprising that after 1945 a depleted band found it difficult to encourage learners. The movement of the tower at the old belfry floor level could be likened to a ship labouring in a heavy sea. The condition of one of the two large oak beams that supported the bells and braced the tower was more alarming. At one end a penknife blade could be pushed easily into the wood. Another contributory factor to the tower's instability was the height of the bells. The position of the frame is now much better. The level of the bells has been lowered, so as to gain more strength from the church walls. Six steel girders brace the tower below the bell frame, and the bells are now rung from the ground floor in full view of the congregation.

Ringings commenced under the direction of the tower captain, Mr. Alec Cheasly, and continued until 4.30 p.m., when all adjourned to the Church Hall for a magnificent tea. This was capably organised by the tower secretary, Miss Beryl Searle, helped by the ladies of Merstham. The District Master, Mr. T. Bird, on behalf of the company of 50 present, proposed a hearty vote of thanks. Ringing continued in many methods until the service. The final touch was Stedman Triples, rung by A. P. Cannon 1, A. Bull 2, C. H. Cook 3, W. Dunn 4, T. Bird 5, J. Euston 6, K. G. Game 7, A. Cheasly 8.

The church was filled to capacity, and the service, conducted by the Rector, Rev. J. H. Biddell, commenced with a favourite hymn of Sir Winston Churchill, followed by a memorial prayer. The lessons were read by Mr. Constant and Mr. Lachelin, relatives of the two departed in whose memory the two new trebles were given. During the singing of the hymn after the third Collect, the Rector, churchwardens, captain of the tower, representatives of the families of those in whose memory the two new bells were given, the architect and representatives of the bell-founders, Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, and the builders' firms assembled in the tower for the dedication of the bells.

In his sermon the Rector said how happy he was to see so many ringers from far and wide at this great moment in St. Katherine's history. It was a glorious thing when a new ring could peal out calling us to worship and reminding those who for reasons of heart or mind could make no willing response. He retraced the initial steps towards the work of restoration of the tower and bells, how the plan for rehanging the old six was amended through the generosity of the Lachelin and Constant families. He was doubtful that so much would have been achieved but for the interest of Mr. Douglas Hughes. The Rector made an appeal for ringers and teachers from other towers. After the service 1,260 Grandsire Triples was rung by A. P. Cannon 1, A. Bull 2, D. Atfield 3, W. Dunn 4, T. Bird 5, A. Streeter 6, K. G. Game (cond.) 7, C. H. Cook 8.

OBITUARY

MR. J. MACBETH

Nayland is on the Essex and Suffolk border and the birthplace of Challis F. Winney. On February 13th four of us from Suffolk and two from Essex attended the church to bid farewell to John Macbeth. His membership of the Boy Scouts commenced in 1911, and he was honoured with the rank of A.D.C. For many years he struggled to maintain service ringing when everything was against him, a small village containing few youngsters and very bad going bells, no experienced ringers living near who could help and, in his own words: "I know so little myself I cannot help them much."

He regularly undertook on his cycle the tedious up hill and down dale journey to Wormingford with his pupils, and never left this tower without thanking Ted Leggett and his ringers for their help. He had great admiration of those who mastered change ringing, and it was a proud day when Donald J. Mills asked him to ring the treble to a peal of Plain Bob Minor at Wormingford in 1957. This was his only peal, but he rang many quarters, and he considered it to be amongst his proudest moments when his daughter was ringing an inside bell with confidence.

Nayland bells are stored at the foundry, £1,400 being needed to reinstall them and when John realised that his days on this earth were numbered he said to his Vicar: "I shall never hear our bells again."

As the cortege left the church all of us ringers, Boy Scouts and British Legion members must have had the same thoughts: "We will remember him" by seeing that those things for which he worked so hard are carried on. L.D.M.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION

Biggleswade District

Even the bitterly cold north wind could not mar the attendance at the meeting of the Biggleswade District at Clifton on February 13th. During the afternoon 37 members and friends were present, and with the arrival of more ringers after tea, numbers swelled until at one point as many as 60 people could be counted in the church. The local tower captain and ringing Master for the meeting, Mr. G. Mayers, had a hard task to satisfy everyone.

Mr. P. Rogers played the organ at Evensong, which was conducted by the Rector, Rev. F. Hall. Mr. P. Mehew took the chair at the short business meeting which followed a sumptuous tea prepared by the local ladies.

Ringings during the evening ranged from rounds for the less experienced to London Surprise Major, and included the special method St. Clement's College Bob Major. Next meeting: Old Warden, March 13th. A.R.A.

BARNSELEY & DISTRICT SOCIETY

The same team of officers was re-elected at the annual meeting of the Barnsley and District Society at Barnsley on February 13th. viz., Noel F. Moxon, president; Harold Chant, treasurer; James W. Buxton, secretary; vice-presidents, J. W. Moxon, A. D. Birch and H. Mann; auditors, C. Moxon and P. Carbutt. Three new members—Claire Skellern and C. Earnshaw (Kirkburton) and Mr. H. L. Roper (Selby)—were elected, and Mr. Roper was called upon to propose the vote of thanks. The Society has now badges on sale for 3s. 9d.

Canon A. P. Morley conducted a short service with Mr. Noel F. Moxon as organist. Next meeting: Kirkburton, March 13th.

GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

LEATHERHEAD DISTRICT

Before the commencement of business at the A.G.M. of the Leatherhead District at Leatherhead on February 6th, those present stood in silence as a token of respect to the Guild general secretary, Mr. S. T. Russell, who had died suddenly on the previous Wednesday.

At the service which preceded the meeting, the Vicar reminded members that the day was the anniversary of the Queen's Accession, and he combined parts of the Accession Service from the Book of Common Prayer with the Guild's own form of service. The Vicar based his address on the responsibility of Queenship.

The District Committee's report showed that £270 had been collected in the District for the Guildford Cathedral Bells Fund.

The following new members were elected: The Misses Shelagh Hards, Susan Cuthbert, Denise Liddicott and Mr. Michael Edwards (Marrow) and Mr. Tony Skilton (Ashted).

Mr. David Herschell, who was recently featured in the "Up and Coming Youngsters" series, was elected District Master and Miss Adrienne Gibson District secretary. Mr. Herschell thanked the members for electing him, and paid tribute to Mr. A. P. Cannon for the work he had done on behalf of the District during his Mastership.

The new Master announced that a District striking competition for six-bell bands would be held at Leatherhead on May 8th.

GUILD of DEVONSHIRE RINGERS

East Devon Branch

A quarterly meeting of the East Devon Branch was held at Broadhembury on February 13th. The service was conducted by the Rev. V. R. A. Cowper, and afterwards tea was taken at a local inn. Mr. John Sage (chairman) conducted the business meeting and extended a warm welcome to all.

Members stood in silence as a tribute to the memory of Mr. Charles Woodley, a past chairman of the branch, who died suddenly earlier in the day.

Six new members were elected, and Guild certificates were presented to Martin Pring and Geoffrey Casely, both of Hemyock. After giving a brief but most interesting talk on Broadhembury bells, the chairman thanked the Rev. Cowper and the local ringers for their efforts in making a successful meeting. Methods rung during the meeting were Grandsire Stedman, Plain Bob, Single Oxford and Cambridge.

MILES GRAYE III

Dear Sir,—Being an East Anglian, born at Stoke-by-Nayland, I was naturally very interested to read T. A. Bevis' article on Miles Graye, the bell-founder. Could Mr. Bevis tell us who Miles Graye III. was and where he fits into the picture?

The Rev. W. C. Pearson's book on 'The Principal Rings of Bells in the Eastern Counties' lists various bells by Miles Graye III., notably the tenor at Hadleigh, Suffolk, date 1680; the 5th at Clare, 1661; 4th at Sudbury All Saints, 1671. Also three bells in Essex, the latest date being for the 6th at Great Bentley, 1683. All these dates come long after the original foundry was taken over by Richard Bowler, and after Miles the younger had given up, according to Mr. Bevis' accounts—Yours faithfully, Stockport.

Faults in New Leeds Church Proposals

Dear Sir,—Mr. Fred L. Fleetwood writes this week (February 12th) regarding a proposed new church near Leeds. While it is pleasing to know that the authorities are considering having a ring of bells I sincerely hope that they will think again before adopting the plan of tower which Mr. Fleetwood explains. If ever there was an example of 'how it should not be done' this is it! To leave the tower open on one side would expose frame and fittings to the full effects of the weather. A snowstorm with drifting might even gum things up completely and make the bells unringable for a time. Bells so exposed would sound very hard and harsh and, reflected by the walls and the flat roof (? concrete), would beat down most unpleasantly on to the incoming congregation. Anyone living nearby on this side would have a very justifiable cause for complaint. To fill this wall with glass would keep out the weather, but would not control the sound. I have heard bells in towers where the windows have been glazed; the sound is very little reduced in volume, while the tone of the bells becomes more harsh and metallic. I think it is the worst possible material to put anywhere near bells.

The whole scheme is in direct contravention to the advice of the Central Council. I would advise Mr. Fleetwood to study the C.C. Handbook on the Installation, Preservation and Repair of Bells, particularly the section on sound control, and bring this to the attention of the authorities and the architect.

In the leading article ('Ringing World,' January 1st) Mr. Norman Chaddock described the steps recently taken to ensure sound control at Rotherham. To do this in an existing tower may be a difficult and expensive business. But all these advantages may be had in a new tower at little or no extra cost.—Yours sincerely,

C. W. WOOLLEY.

Bushey Heath.

P.S.—Mr. Chaddock might be interested to know that an almost exactly similar job to the one he describes was carried out at Bushey about a year ago. Old bricks from a demolished greenhouse in the Rectory garden, a quantity of old timber and some old roofing felt left in the churchyard by a firm who had been relaying part of the church roof were used. The results were very satisfactory.

Long Length of Yorkshire Surprise Major Attempt

Dear Sir,—I wish to give notice that by kind permission of the Rev. J. C. Cunningham an attempt will be made to ring 11,520 Yorkshire Surprise Major at St. Mary's Church, Hanbury, Worcestershire, on Saturday, March 27th, 1965. Ringing will commence at 1.45 p.m. and, if successful, the peal will be credited to the Worcestershire and Districts Association

Easter Monday Peals

Dear Sir,—With reference to Mr. E. H. Martin's letter (page 108) I feel sure that almost everyone taking part in the two peals mentioned knows the unforgettable fact that the Ely Diocesan Association is holding its A.G.M. in Cambridge on Easter Monday.

I understand that permission has not been given for the evening ringing at Great St. Mary's, not because of the peal attempt there in the morning, but because it might affect the number of visitors climbing the tower to see the city (at 7 p.m. on Easter Monday!!!).

In reply to the second paragraph, it is obvious why this situation has arisen, as the tower captain (the same for both the R.C. and Great St. Mary's) is not a member of the Ely Diocesan Association, and is not interested in it or its members; therefore, we get a deadlock, which will not be resolved until negotiations are under way.

Action is called for, so let us sit back and observe this spectacle.—Yours sincerely,
'DISCONTENT.'

The Marbury Peal

Dear Sir,—I think Mr. F. R. Morton has misunderstood the purport of my letter.

A peal of 5,100 changes may well be discounted, but if, in the Marbury peal, a blow in rounds was clearly struck, both at the beginning and end of 42 six-scores, I believe this performance rates as nothing less than a peal of 5,040 changes—and, personally, I know of no rule or regulation which may invalidate it as such.

The fact that 60 extraneous rows—whether changes, queens, titmums or anything else—are added afterwards cannot in any wise detract from a peal of 5,040 changes which has already been accomplished.—Yours sincerely,
TOM BUTLER.

Marbury—More Advice

Dear Sir,—With reference to Mr. F. R. Morton's letter (page 108) on the Marbury peal, we are told that the peal was withdrawn 'because' of the 60 changes rung at the end.

From this statement can one assume that 42 extents had been rung and then another 60 changes, starting from and ending in rounds, constituted the performance of 5,100 changes?

If so, then it seems to me that the fact that the ringers went on to ring an additional 60 changes after completing a true 5,040 is beside the point.

A peal of Doubles must start and end in rounds and consist of 42 extents in between. Did the first 5,040 changes of the Marbury performance fulfil these criteria? If they did, then I would suggest that a peal was rung! Are the efforts of the ringers of this peal to be invalidated because the conductor did not call, 'That's all,' when 5,040 true changes had been rung? If so, then I am glad that ringing peals of Doubles is not one of my vices!

May I suggest to Mr. Morton that, if his first 5,040 changes constituted a true peal, he resubmits his band's efforts at Marbury as a peal? If, however, he pushed an odd '60' into the middle of the performance, then he has no option but to leave things as they are.—Yours sincerely, ROGER SAVORY.

Marchwood, Hants.

Not the Author

Dear Sir,—Re the letter in "The Ringing World" of February 2nd, 1965, page 92, concerning St. Andrew's, Newcastle, I wish to point out that I am not the author of the said letter. Could it be a mistake by the compositor?

I left London ten years ago, and I did not reside in N.I. I do not know the church in question.

Maybe the real author will register his realisation of the mistake made.—Yours faithfully,
R. H. BEGRIE.
Crowthorne, Berks.

Two Questions Answered

Dear Sir,—With reference to Mr. P. G. K. Davies' inquiry whether the composition on page 104 of 'The Ringing World' is the first in five standard methods to contain all the work in a regular three-part, doubtless it depends on what one means by 'standard.' However, if Pudsey has as good a claim as Bristol, the following five-method arrangement may be of interest; I put it together on July 3rd, 1951:—

5,088 SPLICED SURPRISE MAJOR

E. A. BARNETT
23456	B	W	H
24536	—	YSPYCSS
52436	—	SPYCLCP

54326	—	YLCLYCY
35426	—	CYPSSSP
35264	x	LLLS
23564	—	PSSYSPS

Twice repeated. Contains 1,152 Superlative. 1,056 Cambridge, 1,056 Lincolnshire, 960 Pudsey and 864 Yorkshire, with 128 changes of method and all the work of the five methods.

As regards Mr. G. K. Dodd's request for a peal of Bob Major with singles only, these are not difficult to obtain and probably you will be inundated with them. But I think the following may be worth putting forward as an example:

5,088 BOB MAJOR

52364			S S
25364	S	SS	S S
23564			S S

Rung on August 24th, 1936.

Twice repeated. This has the 36 4-5-6 course-end combinations.

So far as I can recall, neither of these compositions has been inflicted on anyone before.

—Yours faithfully,

Crayford, Kent.

E. A. BARNETT.

Thank you

Dear Sir,—I feel I must write to thank you for producing such an excellent 'Sir Winston Churchill Memorial Number.' I for one and, I am sure, a great many more, appreciate the immense amount of work you have put into it.

It must have been a colossal job sorting out the memorial peals from the others, as there are 118 of them and 14 other peals, besides numerous quarter peals.

I am afraid a lot of us take it for granted when the postman drops our journal in the letter box every Thursday morning with almost unflinching regularity, and once again very many thanks for all you do to give us such a splendid paper every week of the year.—Yours sincerely,

Woking

ERNEST R. WARNER.

Not Accepted by Guild

Dear Sir,—A handbell peal of Plain Bob Major was rung on May 27th, 1964, at 105, Nottingham Road, Spondon, Derbyshire, and credited to the Southwell Diocesan Guild. We cannot accept this peal as two of the band are not members.

The address was wrongly published as 105, Borrowash Road. This address does not exist.—Yours faithfully,

H. POYNER, Peal Secretary.

LEICESTER DIOCESAN GUILD

The winter quarterly meeting of the Leicester Diocesan Guild was held in the Syston District on February 13th. During the afternoon the bells at Thurcaston, Rothley, Wanlip and Birstall were available for ringing. A ringers' service was held in the recently enlarged Church of St. James-the-Greater, Birstall, conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. A. A. Lander. This was the first time that a general meeting had been held there and an unusually large number of ringers and friends attended despite the one-day bus strike.

Over 140 sat down to tea prepared by Mr. J. Morley, Mrs. Smalley and other Birstall ringers. The business meeting followed. After the president had thanked everyone for the success of the day, he welcomed Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Beamish (president and treasurer of the Coventry Diocesan Guild). The meeting then stood as a token of respect to Mr. H. Broughton (Leicester Cathedral), Mr. A. J. Cooke (Leicester, St. John-the-Divine) and Mr. G. Hadfield (Hugglescote), who had died since the last meeting.

The committee had decided to transfer the two trustees, Mr. C. Harrison and Mr. J. P. Fidler, both of Loughborough (and Messrs. John Taylor and Co.) and Mr. H. O. Over, of Hugglescote and until lately chairman of the Loughborough District, to the list of Honorary Life Members in recognition of their many years' service to the art of ringing.

The following had been nominated for the general offices, the elections to take place at the annual general meeting: President (one required), Mr. B. S. Payne (Barrow-on-Soar, a vice-president); and Mr. A. E. Rowley (Ibstock, a former treasurer). Vice-presidents (two required), Mr. J. E. Adams (Leicester, St. Margaret); Mr. J. H. Cook (Asfordby, and chairman of the Melton Mowbray District); and Mr. P. L. Taylor (Loughborough, a vice-president); general secretary, Mr. B. G. Warwick, of Leicester; treasurer (one required), Mrs. B. G. Warwick (treasurer), and Mr. J. M. Jelley (Leicester Cathedral); peal secretary, Mr. R. H. Cook (Asfordby); trustees (two required), Messrs. C. Harrison and J. P. Fidler (Loughborough).

Notice was given of the following alterations and additions to rules which would come before the annual general meeting: Rule 5 (a), line 3, after "to elect the officers" to insert "with the exception of the president, who shall be elected every third year." Proposed by D. Manship, seconded by F. K. Measures.

Notice was given of alterations of rules dealing with the president, who it is proposed should be elected every third year and the office be vacated if absent from three consecutive committee meetings: ceases to be a member of the Guild if by notice in writing he resigns his office.

FORTY-TWO NEW MEMBERS

Seven non-resident and 35 resident members were elected, viz.: Non-resident: J. H. Fielden, G. E. Thoday, P. S. Bennett, G. Penny, C. M. Press, E. Deakin and J. Pearson. Rosemary Brooks (Great Bowden), J. Hunting and Mrs. Jelley (Leicester Cathedral), C. P. Davis (Houghton-on-the-Hill), T. Natt (Aylestone), J. H. Billson, C. Billson, Anne Hughes, G. Pickwell, D. Seal, D. Mee and J. R. J. Angell (Markfield); B. Nixon, Joyce Pickering, C. Baliol-Key, Gillian McKay, Josephine Flint, Christine Flint, N. Davis (Thurcaston); Phyllis Turner (Birstall); P. Chambers (Barrow-on-Soar); Mrs. D. J. Niblett (Syston); Rebecca Coates (Shepshed); Valerie Greaves and R. Wilson (Loughborough); G. Geary (Croft); A. Faulkes and T. Wykes (Hinckley); Mrs. R. Burrows, L. Burrows, Keith Isaacs, Kevin Isaacs and D. M. Brown (Sapcote); C. Castell, Leicester All Saints'.

Mr. Jack Adams reported that the Ernest Morris Memorial window will be completed within the next three months, and the Vicar had agreed that the dedication service should be held on a Saturday, so that ringers would be able to attend. The date will be publicised in "The Ringing World."

The secretary announced the arrangements for the annual general meeting, which would be held in Leicester on April 24th. The service would be in the Cathedral, and the Rev. R. J. Hunting (Vicar of Sileby and an honorary member) had agreed to preach.

The Guild Striking Competition would be held at Queniborough on May 15th; entry form to be submitted by May 1st. The judges are Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Beamish and Mr. J. P. Fidler.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Mr. P. J. Staniforth showed the 50-minute cine film which he took while on his visit to the U.S.A. to open the bells at Washington Cathedral. A collection for the general fund realised £7 13s.

Anonymity

Dear Sir,—I have read Mr. Worrall's letter with much interest, and although I am normally against too protracted correspondence on one issue, I believe that this is one which will bear further scrutiny.

First of all, I would point out that I had no intention of discussing the points raised by our unknown correspondents; my letter was purely a protest against the increasing, and apparently indiscriminate, use of the pseudonym. Neither did I accuse the writers of hypocrisy, only of a certain lack of courage.

Indeed, I most firmly believe that every man has a right to his own point of view and the right to state it publicly if he so desires. Let me take Atheist as an illustration. He has probably given a great deal more, and deeper, thought to the question of religion than many of the rest of us, blindly believing in what we were brought up to believe. He has reached an honest conclusion, and should be respected for it. But why—and this is the important point—does he feel it necessary to keep his identity a secret?

I am reluctant to believe any man a hypocrite. But it seems to me that Atheist must take one of two courses. Either he is open about his views—and if he does not mind his friends knowing, why should he object to a lot of strangers, whom he will probably never meet?—or else he hides them. And if he hides them, does he enter a church and behave there like a Christian? For if I were attending the service at, say, a meeting, and Atheist were in the same church intoning the Lord's Prayer, I'm afraid I would certainly call that hypocrisy.

Now, Mr. Worrall presents a point of view which I had not previously very seriously considered; that the fear of ostracism is a very real and well-grounded one. He has suffered from it himself; I don't understand why, but not being in possession of the facts am not qualified to comment. However, I bow to his superior knowledge, and this brings us to a second point.

It is a very disquieting thought that a person who writes to a paper mainly concerned with the Christian Church should feel compelled for this reason to shelter behind a nom-de-plume. It is a severe reflection on the rest of us. Are we so narrow-minded that we cannot allow our fellows to hold their own opinions on religion, government and the price of "The Ringing World"? It is not a Christian principle to ostracise a man because of his opinions. It is not broad-minded or tolerant or even humane. It is worse to pick on one man who has expressed (showing some degree of courage, I agree) the views held by more of us than care to admit it; nobody can deny that there are many ringers who do use the bells simply for their own pleasure and not for any divine purpose. Now, if the attitude of a whole section of the Church has led a man to believe he would be badly treated if his opinions became generally known, I suggest that it is time we reviewed that attitude. It is not one calculated to convert even a vacillating atheist.—Yours faithfully,

Tavistock.

Ringers in and around Falmouth, Cornwall, might be interested to know that 'The Sound of Bells,' by Edgar C. Shepherd, can be obtained from Falmouth Public Library.

Mr. G. Dodd thanks readers who have sent him compositions of Bob Major with all singles. An attempt to ring one of them has already been arranged.

The four ringing towers in the borough of Harrow were each represented in the peal rung at St. Mary's, Harrow-on-the-Hill, on February 1st. Sir Winston was not only a schoolboy at Harrow, but was the borough of Harrow's first honorary freeman.

The quarter peal of Bob Royal at Brighton on January 30th was the hundredth peal for Miss Angela Grainger. The conductor (Mr. M. J. Bew) has now conducted six quarter peals, one each of Doubles, Minor, Triples, Major, Caters and Royal.

Mr. W. J. Rawlings informs us that the peal he rang at St. Paul's Cathedral on the day of the State funeral of Sir Winston Churchill was his 101st. His 100th peal was rung at the Commonwealth Institute on November 14th, 1964 for the birthday of H.R.H. Prince Charles.

The peal rung at West Clandon on February 13th as a welcome to the new Rector, the Rev. Peter Taylor, came within a few days of the funeral of the general secretary of the Guildford Diocesan Guild, Mr. Stanley T. A. Russell. He was remembered by the ringers participating.

Mr. John Hunt writes: The place notation of Mauretania Surprise Major, first rung at Knowle, Bristol, on January 25th, should read: x 38 x 14 x 58 x 16 x 12 x 38.14.56.34.78. The notation published in 'The Ringing World' of February 19th was in fact that of Lyme Surprise Major. Mauretania is No. NZ 209 of Shirley Burton's collection, and the conductor is grateful to Mr. Burton for pointing out the error.

First of Minor in Scotland

Members of the Sunday Service band at St. Cuthbert's, Edinburgh, all of whom are resident in Edinburgh except Mr. Martyn Marriott, who is at the University for 30 weeks in the year, have rung at Alloa the first peal of Minor for the Association. Scotland has no ringable rings of six, so Alloa was the only reasonable choice of tower, as all the other rings of eight are far too heavy for a peal to be rung on the back six in comfort. Two of the band scored their first peal, one her first of Minor, and it was the most number of methods rung to a peal for all the band.

After the performance the ringers were greeted by the local captain and ladies who had prepared a huge tea, and so ended a very successful afternoon. 'We are all proud of the performance, rung by a local band in a local tower, even if that tower is 34 miles away,' writes Mr. Marriott.

Epsom Misfortune

On January 30th, a peal of Plain Bob Royal was lost after 2hr. 55min. at St. Martin's, Epsom, being only 20 minutes from the end. The deeply muffled bells were rung by five people from St. Martin's, Epsom, and five from Epsom Common, and was to have been in memoriam for Sir Winston Churchill. Also if it had been successful, it would have been the first peal for Mr. Geoffrey Stevens, who rang the treble extremely well, and the first of Royal for the other ringers. The conductor, Mr. David J. Horschell, had to stop the attempt as two bells had crossed over. However, another attempt is planned in the near future.

Cup Winners Married

Two active members of the Southwell Diocesan Guild who have many friends throughout the country, Miss Christine Froggatt and Mr. Brian Mills, were married just before Christmas at Shelford, their home tower. They brought distinction locally by being in the band which won the coveted Crawford Cup in 1964, and also both took part in the first peal of Minor in 27 methods for the Guild.

Through unforeseen circumstances the peal attempt which had been arranged was not possible, but a quarter peal of 1.440 Minor (Single Oxford and Plain Bob) was rung at nearby Cotgrave by Graham Smith (first quarter) 1. Susan Meredith 2. S. Dutton 3. Doreen Bradley 4. F. Bradley (cond.) 5. B. Buswell 6.

Darryl of Northenden

Behind the brief announcement of the quarter peal at Northenden, Manchester (page 112), there is a story of devotion to our art. About a year ago this band for one reason or another lost four of their best ringers, whom they could ill-afford to lose. These included the belfry leader, Miss Darryl Gillespie, although the youngest member (at the time only 16) took over a depleted band and with much hard work kept them at it. As ringing had been confined to Doubles, the quarter of Plain Bob Major was an encouraging achievement. The band are hoping that before another young ringer goes to college they will ring a quarter of Kent T.B.

Big Send-off from Washington

Immediately before Mr. Fred Price's departure from Washington for England, a tea party was held in the ringing chamber of the National Cathedral. Sarah Irwin, one of the girls in the National Cathedral School for Girls, composed this lyric, which was sung by some 20 or so of Mr. Price's students. 'Mr. Price did a wonderful job here,' writes Mrs. Alice W. Shurdiff in forwarding the lyric.

TO MR. FRED PRICE

Good rounds, good striking and a good course of Grandsire;

Talking and cookies and tea by a warm fire;

Dark purl sallies and full ten-bell rings;

These are a few of our favourite things.

Hunting and coursing and dodging and snapping;

Right pulls and wrong pulls and muffles tapping;

Watching the world like birds high on the wing;

These are a few of our favourite things.

When your 'plane leaves for old England

And we're feeling sad,

We'll think of a few of our favourite things,

And then we won't feel so bad.

Climbing stone staircases, running elevators;

Hoping that someday we'll ring Stedman

Caters;

Christmas, and New Years and Saturday

rings;

These are a few of our favourite things.

Studying methods, and wishin' and hopin'

That we'll be the ones to ring open;

Watching the bells as they turn in full swing;

These are a few of our favourite things.

When your 'plane leaves for old England

And we're feeling sad,

We'll think of a few of our favourite things,

And then we won't feel so bad.

Blewbury Peal Time

With the peal of Stedman Triples at Blewbury, Berkshire, on February 13th, Harry Wells, formerly tower leader at Nettlebed, Oxon, rang his first peal for over nine years.

The writer has the feeling that the time of 2hr. 35min. taken for the peal would not meet with the approval of a certain lady ringer from Suffolk, now resident at Westminster College Oxford.

From Nottingham to Louth

Holme Pierrepont ringers are sorry at the impending departure for Louth, Lincs, of Mr. James A. Heaps, who conducted his first peal on January 25th (see page 123). For about three years the band had been trying to get him to stand in a peal, but until last week without success. Mr. Heaps is churchwarden at Holme Pierrepont and also headmaster of the Church school there. He has been ringing for many years.

Northleigh Progress

We have received an encouraging report concerning the progress made at St. Mary's, Northleigh, due primarily to the encouragement of Mr. David Smith and others who spent many frustrating hours over a long period, in getting the band off call changes on boards to method ringing. So enthusiastic are the ringers that the first ever peal board is now in the tower and two more are being prepared.

Two young ringers, Peter Holden and James List, have progressed from Plain Bob Doubles to Surprise methods and visit other towers to gain additional tuition and experience. Peter rang his first peal as conductor last month. Both of these ringers have younger sisters who ring, and it is hoped that they will follow in their brothers' footsteps. There is also a reasonable tune ringing handbell team in the tower whose services were in great demand at Christmas. Method ringing on handbells is also progressing.

Two Firsts, Two Fifties

On Saturday, February 14th, Mr. R. Nalliah joined the Wentworth ringers for ringing for the morning service. Mr. Nalliah, who is a dental surgeon, is one of the latest recruits to the Wentworth band. Priory to Evensong on the same day another member of the Wentworth band—Mr. T. Cairns—rang his first quarter peal. This quarter peal was the fiftieth quarter of Doubles for two members—Mr. Alec Beaumont and Mr. A. King.

Another Band is Blossoming

The first quarter on the restored bells at Caddington, Beds., was rung on February 12th with two members of the new band who started learning about a year ago on the treble (the tower captain) and the tenor. There were no ringers at all in the parish when the bells were rededicated, and the Vicar had to ask for help in training his many volunteers. They now ring Plain Hunt Doubles for Sundays, and are learning to hunt the treble through Grandsire on Fridays. The departure of the Vicar to Kempston deserved a special effort, hence the two "senior" ringers in this their first touch.

Corrections

The peal of 5.040 Minor rung at Barrowby, Lincs (February 12th issue) contained four extents of Kent Treble Bob and three of Plain Bob, not as printed.

The ringer of the fourth in the peal at West Wickham for the Kent County Association (page 120) should read D. Paul Smith.

The 5.003 Grandsire Caters at Isleworth on January 30th was a composition by Gabriel Lindoff, conducted by Mr. Frank B. Lufkin.

The peal of Stedman Triples rung at St. Andrew's, Cambridge, by the Cambridge University Guild on January 30th in memory of Sir Winston Churchill, was the first Guild peal in which a member of Churchill College has rung.
